BIG CROWDS HEAR WOODROW WILSON

Trying Weather Doesn't Keep Michigan People from Greeting Him

EXTOLS DEMOCRATIC TEAM

Governor Declares It Is Only One That Can Disentangle the Public From Special Interests—Meets Collegians

Detroit, Mich., Sept. 19.—Governor Woodrow Wilson campaigned in the rain today as he traveled across the State for a speech here tonight. Everywhere en route where his train stopped the Governor was greeted by crowds who stood huddled under umbrellas, while the candidate talked politics under trying conditions. The Governor's speech here tonight was his principal speech of the day.

At many places on the trip across the State the nominee stepped down from the train and stood in the rain to shake hands with those who pressed forward to meet him. Several Wellesley College students were on the same train with Gov. Wilson and they came back to the special car to meet him.

At Kalamazoo, Mich., a crowd of collegians gathered to give the Governor a cheer. It was there that he made his longest speech of the afternoon.

"I have found that the subjects to be discussed in this campaign are so tremendous that they can hardly be handled in speeches from the rear-end of the train," said the Governor. "Moreover, the rear platform is not the Democratic platform this time. We are at the front and not at the back. But I must say that since I have got into Michigan I have felt a singular stimulation because we have stopped at several other cities and everywhere there is the same spirit of hope and confidence.

"I can explain it only this way, that we are genuinely interested in the one subject that lies nearest by own heart, namely, setting the government free. Because, whether it was done intentionally or not there is no doubt about it that our government in recent years has been seriously entangled with special interests of various kinds, and the men who got it entangled cannot get it disentangled. That is the whole point of the matter.

"There is no time to discuss here, how we got into it or how we are to get out of it. But the point is that the people of the United States have made up their mind to get out of it, and there is only one team ready to do the business, and that is the Democratic team. I am speaking in the terms of a man who has been bred in a football college. I know the third team is not organized; it does not even know the signals and the regular Republican team is very much weakened. It has lost some of its principal players. But there have been no losses on the Democratic side. On the contrary, there have been a great many games, and the game is familiar to the Democrats that we have to play now."

Replies to Roosevelt.

Detroit, Mich., Sept. 19.—Trusts flourished more under former President Roosevelt's administration than under any other in the history of the country. This was the way Governor Wilson replied in a speech here tonight to assertions of Col. Roosevelt at Trinidad, Colo., yesterday, taking exception to the Democratic nominee's declaration that during the recent investigation by the House, Messrs. Gary and Perkins suggested the plank in the Progressive Republican platform proposing a Federal commission to regulate the trusts.

"I understand that the leader of the third party,' said Mr. Wilson, "has recently said that he did not suggest this change just the other day; that he had suggested it while he was President, in one of his messages to Congress during that same term of the Presidency in which trusts grew faster and more numerously than in any other administration we have had and that his conclusion was—he doesn't say this, but this must be the inference—that his conclusion was that the trusts had come to stay; that it was not possible to put them out of business; it was not possible to check their supremacy; that all you could do was to accept them as necessary evils and appoint an industrial commission which would tell them how they were to do their business, not an industrial commission which should tell you how other men should be admitted into the field of competition but an industrial commission which should take care of the people of the United States by saying to these trusts:

"'Now go easy; don't hurt anybody. We believe that when you are reminded of your moral duties, you are not malevolent, you are beneficent. You are big, but you are not cruel'."

Bi-partisan bosses were another object of attack by the Governor in his speech before a crowd that filled light guard armory.

"The trouble in this country," said the nominee, "is that the boss of one party has an arrangement with the boss of the other party, so that if its heads or tails he wins. What I am amazed at in the political boss is not

MRS. HELEN P. GRAY ARRESTED

Investigator of Crow Indian Affairs Is Charged With Concealing Public Records—Her Defense. Out on Recognizance.

Washington, Sept. 19.—Mrs. Helen Pierce Gray, of St. Paul, Minn., who as an investigator of Crow Indian affairs was the center of stormy scenes at the last session of Congress, was arrested here today on complaint of the Indian office and charged with concealing public records. She was released on her own recognizance for $500 upon assurance from Senator Clapp, of Minnesota, that she would appear.

her trial before a United States commissioner was set for Tuesday.

Specifically, Mrs. Gray was charged with concealing the allotment roll of the Crow tribe, covering Indian lands in Montana. Upon her arraignment today she declared she had taken the roll from the Indian office with the consent of former Indian Commissioner Robert G. Valentine and Judge M. C. Burch, an attorney of the attorney general's office attached to the United States marshal's office in Detroit, and turned them over to the Department of Justice that it might be saved from destruction and used as evidence in a proposed investigation before the Senate Committee on Indian Affairs. Such an investigation was provided for at the last session in a resolution by Mr. Townsend, of Minnesota. Mrs. Gray declared her action had the approval of Attorney General Wickersham and that her arrest had been brought about by her enemies in the attorney general's absence from the city. Destruction of the Crow records, she said, involved lands valued at probably $100,000,000.

At the Department of Justice today very little was known of the affair. Most officials there are out of town. At the Interior Department, however, it was said Mrs. Gray's arrest had been asked by Assistant Secretary Adams upon the report of the Indian office that she had three times declined to return the Crow records.

Acting Commissioner Abbot pronounced Mrs. Gray's charge, that the papers were about to be destroyed, "foolish."

Mrs. Gray last Winter had a desk in the Indian office as a representative of the Graham committee, investigating Crow affairs. At one time, she claimed that she was being paid by the Democratic National Committee. In a heated passage upon the floor of the house between Republican Leader Mann and Chairman Graham, Mr. Mann declared her employment by the committee was with the purpose of blackening the character of men in public life. The incident passed over and an investigation was provided in the Townsend resolution. With the consent of former Commissioner Valentine, Mrs. Gray said, she took records from the Indian office giving receipts and giving them to persons in the Department of Justice charged with making an inquiry.

Since she began investigating Indian affairs, eight years ago at the request of former President Roosevelt, Mrs. Gray declares, she has been arrested eight times by persons who wish to impede her work. Mrs. Gray, when arrested was at first inclined to go to the district jail rather than give a bond. Her bail was first fixed at $1,000, but later reduced to $500 and furnished by Senator Clapp.

Later in the day representatives of the Indian Bureau went through the files of the Department of Justice and discovered the missing papers. They were returned to the bureau.

Newport News, Va., Sept. 19.—Harry H. Kimberly, of Old Point, today was appointed Presidential elector by the First Virginia district Republican committee to succeed George Nelms Wise, of Newport News, Mr. Wise recently resigned to cast his lot with the Progressive party.

STATE COMMITTEE MET IN RALEIGH

Executives of Democratic Party in Session Until Early Hour Today.

DEFINITION OF "A DEMOCRAT"

Whole Ticket Must be Voted—Resolution by Hackett, of Wilkesboro—No Prospect of Early Adjournment of the Committee.

(Special Ttar Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 19.—At 1 o'clock this morning after thrashing out the matter since 8:45 o'clock, the State Democratic Executive Committee adopted a resolution by R. H Hackett, of Wilkesboro, declaring that it is the interpretation of the committee that the words "Democratic ticket," by the State Democratic Convention, prescribing who shall vote in the Senatorial primary, shall mean "All nominees of the Democratic party for office."

Quite a number of amendments and substitutes for this were first voted down. Neither E. L. Travis, a close friend of Governor Kitchin, nor Manager Governor Kitchin, for the Senate, ager McNinch, of the campaign, of voted on the resolution, Mr. Travis stating after insistent calls, that he did not vote for it, because he believed it went too far and would injure the cause of Democracy. Then he voted for the Hackett resolution, as he explained, in order that he might have the right to move to reconsider. There is no prospect of an early adjournment of the committee.

There were fifty-five of the seventy members of the State Committee present in person or by proxy tonight. The matter of passing on what constituted the 'Democratic tickets" was taken up as new business rather than as unfinished business from the last meeting, when there was a long discussion and several resolutions offered. The Hackett resolution was offered first, providing that the "Democratic ticket means all nominees of the Democratic party for office."

To this, Chairman Webb offered an amendment: "Provided no elector who shall vote for any candidate running on any ticket in opposition to any Democrat shall vote in the Senatorial primary."

This was accepted by Mr. Hackett, but was in the long drawn out roll call of votes withdrawn.

A. W. McLean offered a resolution that the committee interpret the Democratic ticket as meaning National, Congressional, judicial, legislative and county ticket, provided that no elector who shall at said general election of November 5th, 1912, vote for any candidate running on any ticket in opposition to the regular Democratic nominees shall be permitted to vote in said primary."

This was in the end voted down, 16 to 36. The McLean resolution was carried, 36 to 23, which requires voting for all Democratic nominees from President to township constable.

A resolution by Walter Murphy allowing votes for Senator if the elector voted for the Democratic candidates for the Legislature was voted down. Another by R. H. Hayes, offered as an amendment to the Hackett resolution, designed to allow scratching of the county tickets, except the candidates for the Legislature, was also voted down. Also an amendment by Cameron Morrison to the Hackett resolution not to include township candidates in "Democratic ticket" but to include Presidential electors. This was lost before the Hackett resolution was passed unamended.

With the passage of the Hackett resolution the committee turned for a few minutes to other business.

A resolution by E. L. Travis was adopted declining to allow Democratic candidates to accept challenges for joint canvasses with nominees of the Republican or other parties.

The committee voted down a resolution by Walter Clark, Jr., for a joint Senatorial ballot having thereon the names of all three of the Senatorial candidates, this being in the interest of economy, Mr. Clark explained. At 2 o'clock there were efforts to adjourn insistence being made by Hon. M. L. Shipman and others that the committee has striven for five hours in vain to settle the "Democratic Ticket" questoi to the satisfaction of every Democratic committee and Democrati body and they wanted the Hackett resolution to stand finally a resolution by S. M. Gattis prevailed that a recess betaken for ten minutes to allow a conference of friends of the three candidates for United States Senate in the hope of reaching an agreement on a resolution that would be more satisfactory to the committee as a whole. In the meantime a motion to reconsider the vote by which the Hackett resolution was passed was carried.

At 2:15 o'clock the special committee of friends of the Senatorial candidates found it impossible to agree upon any satisfactory changes in the Hackett resolution they so reported to the executive committee and final adjournment followed. This leaves the Hackett resolution in force defining the Democratic ticket as meaning all nominees of the Democratic party for office.

PRESIDENT TAKES CONGRESS TO TASK

Taft Disagrees With Members on Question of a Federal Budget

WRITES TREASURY SECRETARY

In His Message to MacVeagh the President Declares That the Forbidding of Budget System is Unconstitutional.

Beverly, Mass., Sept. 19.—President Taft tonight made public a letter to Secretary of the Treasury Franklin MacVeagh, taking open issue with Congress on the question of a Federal budget and directing all heads of government departments or independent officers to make their estimates of revenue and expenditures for the fiscal year in conformity with the budget plan. The President's letter to MacVeagh declared that the prohibition in one of the big supply bills passed by Congress in the closing hours of the last session, practically forbidding the use of a budget system, is unconstitutional.

He said that no other great nation in the world is without a budget system; pointed out that only through this method can accurate estimates be made for the country's benefit of how the people's money is being expended, and scored the effort of Congress to prevent its adoption. His letter to Mr. MacVeagh reads in part as follows:

"If the President is to assume responsibility for either the manner in which business of the government is transacted or results obtained, it is evident that he cannot be limited by Congress to such information as that branch may think sufficient for his purposes. In my opinion, it is entirely competent for the President to submit to Congress and to the country a statement of resources, obligations, revenues, expenditures and estimates in the form he deems advisable. And this power I propose to exercise.

"The United States is the only great country that does not have a budget. Each year the Congress has been making increasingly large appropriations, based upon estimates which are submitted by officers acting in the capacity of ministerial agents to Congress, under a law which makes no provisions whatever, for executive review and revision. This I have sought in a measure to correct by asking the heads of departments to send estimates to me before they were printed, but the conditions attached by Congress have been such as to make executive review impossible.

"The present legal directions as to estimates are based on the theory that there is no need to take stock before passing on appropriations; that it is not necessary to consider revenues or treasury resources. Congress has directed each executive officer to submit an estimate through the Secretary of the Treasury, who is made to serve in the capacity of an official messenger without any discretion whatever, unless a department head may fail to fill a request for appropriations in the form prescribed by Congress, in which event the Secretary of the Treasury has imposed upon him the duty to submit an estimate for

OUTSIDERS CAUSED STRIKE

Secretary of Kanawha Coal Operators Holds Operators in Other States Responsible for W. Va., Coal Strike.

Charleston, W. Va., Sept. 19.—N. C. Kennedy, secretary of the Kanawha Coal Operators' Association, testifying before the West Virgilia Mining Investigating Committee today, declared the operators in other States were responsible for the present strike in the Kanawha district. Mr. Kennedy in this assertion, backed up the contention of the operators, frequitly expressed, that the joint competitive States of Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and Western Pennsylvania absolutely controlled the wage scales in other States and he cited Iowa and Michigan as examples. These States, he said, were not permitted to have a representative on the scale committee and have no voice in the scales even locally.

Evidence was offered with a view of showing that the joint competitive States are back of the movement to organize West Virginia for the purpose, it was contended, of controlling the wage scale in this State.

The commission then recessed until Saturday morning, when it is expected President White and other international officers of the Mine Workers' Union will appear before the commission appointed by Governor Glasscock to investigate mining conditions.

Saturday morning the mass meeting called by the Governor is to be held here with a view of bringing about peace in the Cabin and Paint Creek districts.

PAPER CHANGES FACE

San Francisco Call Will Support Woodrow Wilson

New York, Sept. 19.—The Buffalo Evening Times says: "The San Francisco Call, one of the leading Republican newspapers of the Pacific coast, as well as one of the most influential papers in the country, is weary of the dissension, bickering and open rupture within the Republican party, and editorially is urging its readers to vote for Woodrow Wilson.

"The Call has not been the only paper to switch since the nomination of the Democratic candidate, but it is probably the most significant change of policy of any of them.

"More and more to the best thinking people in the country is the candidacy of Woodrow Wilson assuming that of the ideal. Each day it becomes more evident that in the New Jersey executive Democracy has made no mistake. From every side comes reports of the espousal of the Democratic cause on the part of those hitherto antagonistic. His achievements in public office, his personality, his policies and his plans are compelling admiration and attracting allegiance. Election day will find a strong percentage of the Republican vote ranged on the Democratic side. The Call is one of many great newspapers that are particularly giving their support to the man who they know will conduct the affairs of the nation along lines that will tend to the greater happiness and comfort of the people and the honor and glory of the country."

Salisbury, N. C., Sept. 19.—The Richmond Boosters viewed Salisbury this morning from the skyscraper, their band playing on the roof garden. Many citizens greeted the visitors.

CLERK SPRINGS SENSATION

Ed R. Schreiter, of Detroit Council, Testifies at Graft Inquiry That Fund Had Been Raised to Ruin Aldermen.

Detroit, Mich., Sept. 19.—Testifying for the prosecution today at the hearing of 17 aldermen and himself charged with conspiring to defraud the city, former Councilmanic Clerk Edward R. Schreiter asserted that on July 9th he received a mysterious letter from Chicago in which the writer declared a $10,000 fund had been raised in an effort to ruin Schreiter and members of the council politically and financially.

Schreiter's declaration was the sensation of the hearing.

He testified the letter was signed "a friend" and that it specifically mentioned himself and Thomas Glinnan, president of the council and hinted that other aldermen were in danger of being the victims of a so-called political plot. Schreiter and Glinnan are among the 18 city officials alleged to have been implicated in a plot to demand several thousand dollars from the Wabash Railroad in return for municipal favors. An operative for a National detective agency, who caused the arrest of the officials, had already testified he posed as an agent of the railroad and succeeded in either bribing the officials or securing their promises to accept bribes before he sprung the trap which resulted in their arrest.

According to Schreiter's testimony at the hearing today, he destroyed the mysterious letter after having shown it to Alderman Theisen, one of the councilmen on trial. When asked to state its contents as best he could from memory, the former council clerk said the writer urged him to meet him at a Chicago hotel to learn further details. Schreiter said he did not answer the summons.

NO SETTLEMENT YET

But Quiet Reigns In Great Copper Strike Zone

Bingham, Utah, Sept. 19. — The strike of the 4,500 miners at the great copper plants here is no nearer settlement tonight than when the men walked out yesterday. Quiet prevails tonight.

Gov. Spry came here this afternoon. The 1,000 Greek miners entrenched behind breastworks came out to hear an address by the Governor, in which he urged them to take peaceful means to end the strike. Gov. Spry then warned the miners not to interfere with property. The Greeks have not gone back to their fortifications, but it is said they will do so tomorrow.

Gov. Spry conferred tonight with Charles H. Moyer, president of the Western Federation of Miners and Adjutant General Wedgewood, of the Utah National Guard. Mr. Moyer has cautioned the strikers that destruction of property will not be tolerated by the union and has advised the men that any member found guilty of unlawful acts will be expelled.

"The sheriff is in full charge of the situation," said Gov. Syrp tonight. "I am confident he can manage things. Calling out the militia would only be done as a last resort."

Salisbury, N. C., Sept. 19.—Nine appointments have been arranged for joint debates between Congressman Doughton and his Republican opponent, C. D. G. Reynolds, beginning at Sparta September 26th and ending at Salisbury October 5th.

WHITMAN REPLIES TO MAYOR GAYNOR

District Attorney Declares Gotham Executive is Beclouding Issue

INQUIRY AT HOT SPRINGS

Counsel for Lieutenant Becker Arrives On Scene—Rosenthal Described As Being "Poacher" of Women—Angered Others

Hot Springs, Ark., Sept. 19.—District Attorney Whitman, of New York, issued the following statement tonight in reply to assertions credited to Mayor Gaynor:

"I have seen only the telegraph dispatch to the press here so I have no detailed knowledge of what has been said.

"The secrets of the grand jury have not been violated as every member of the grand jury knows. The minutes of the grand jury have not been made public since I was district attorney except by proper order of the court, and every judge of general sessions and of every Supreme Court, whenever such a suggestion was made, has been able to satisfy himself on this point and in some instances has done so by the merest reference to the grand jury minutes.

"It is not a statutory offense for the district attorney to reveal evidence given before the grand jury although I agree that no conscientious public official would do so except as provided by law.

"It is interesting at this time to recall the fact that something more than a year ago Mayor Gaynor was himself a witness before the grand jury. He complained, for publication, on the following day, that his testimony had been made public by me.

"It developed later that the statement in question, which related to the retirement of Deputy Commissioner Flynn, was not made by Mayor Gaynor before the grand jury at all and that he had been examined in the grand jury room by Geo. Gordon Battle and Frank Moss and not by the district attorney who was not even in the room when the subject was referred to.

"I don't propose to be diverted from the prosecution growing out of the murder of Herman Rosenthal and I intend to ignore any further efforts to becloud the real issue. If the mayor or any other citizen has any charges to prefer against me he is at liberty to do so and the sooner the better."

Schepps Not Misquoted

Hot Springs, Ark., Sept. 19.—Douglas Hotchkiss editor of a local newspaper today assured G. W. Hart, of counsel for Police Lieutenant Becker, that Sam Schepps was not misquoted when the latter was quoted in a newspaper article as having described Herman Rosenthal as a "poacher" or women, thus causing the anger of the "other fellows."

Schepps has renounced the article which was written by Hotchkiss.

The attorney was also assured by Hotchkiss that printed copies of letters taken from Schepps were accurate.

Hart, who arrived today from New York, declared that it is the contention of the defense of Becker that Schepps made assertions while in custody in Hot Springs as a Rosenthal murder case witness that will tend to show an entirely different motive for the killing of the New York gambler than simply a desire of gunmen to earn wages. He questioned several nespaper men informally this afternoon preliminary to the examination of persons who talked with Schepps while he was detained in this city.

District Attorney Whitman, of New York, also is here to attend the inquiry which probably will begin Monday of next week.

Becker Made Threats.

Hot Springs, Ark., Sept. 19.—"Schepps told me that Becker told 'them' that if 'they' did not kill Rosenthal he (Becker) would."

This declaration was made tonight to counsel for Police Lieut. Charles Becker, of New York, by Police Capt. George Howell, of Hot Springs, according to the statement of the Hot Springs official, after he had been questioned by G. W. Hart, of counsel for Becker.

Howell says he was asked if Sam Schepps, who was in Howell's custody while detained here as a witness in connection with the killing of Rosenthal, had not said to him that Becker had nothing to do with the killing. Howell would go no further into the details of the interview.

Another Witness Arrested.

New York, Sept. 19.—Harry Pollok, in whose apartment "Bald Jack" Rose remained while the police were searching for him, was arrested today on a body attachment as a witness in the John Doe proceedings in connection with the Rosenthal murder.

Information reached the District Attorney's office that Pollok was about to sail for Europe and accordingly Acting District Attorney Moss asked Justice Goff for a body attachment in order to insure Pollok's presence at the trial of Police Lieut. Becker, charged with the murder of Herman Rosenthal, the gambler.

Pollok was held in $5,000 bail as a material witness. A woman who was with him at the time when he was arrested was also held as a material

A. A. U. MEET IS ON TODAY.

Cream of Athletic World Will Compete in Championship Games.

Pittsburg, Pa., Sept. 19.—Many well known athletes from all parts of the United States are gathered here tonight for the championship meet of the A. A. U., which begins at Forbes' Field tomorrow afternoon. The athletes are in good shape and anxious for the start of the games.

Interest in the big meet is at high pitch. With the showing of the American athletes at Stockholm fresh in memory, thousands of persons from Pennsylvania, West Virginia and Ohio will witness the games. In addition hundreds of visitors have reached the city from distant points.

An international flavor has been given to the meet by the late entry of Hannes Kolehmainen, the wonderful Finnish runner, and Olympic champion. He is entered for the five mile run and that event promises to resolve itself into a race against the record.

George Bonhag, champion for that distance, will not defend it. 25:09 is Bonhag's time. Another feature will be the two-mile run, in which such runners as Meredith, Sheppard and Caldwell will take part.

A large delegation of athletes represent the Irish American A. C., headed by Trainer Lawson Robertson. The New York men reached the city early today. About a dozen prominent athletes arrived tonight from Boston, while others came from Chicago, St. Louis, Kansas City, Cleveland, Philadelphia and Minneapolis.

The junior events will be decided tomorrow afternoon and the senior events Saturday afternoon.

Atlanta, Ga., Sept. 19.—Comptroller General Wright is celebrating today the 23rd anniversary of his tenure of office as a State house official. Cleveland, Sept. 19.—The new American League champions lost two games to Cleveland here today by scores of 9 to 3 and 6 to 0.

Both games were short inning affairs. The first was called at the end of the fifth inning because of rain. After an hour's wait the second game was started only to be called at the end of six innings because of darkness. Boston lost the entire series of four games to Cleveland, the first time this season they lost four consecutive games. Cleveland also stands even with Boston on the season's schedule, each having won 11 games.

Cleveland .....204 03—9 10 1
Boston .....001 11—3 9 6

Chicago, Sept. 19.—Borton's double, a passed ball and Egan's throw to third, gave Chicago the final game of the season with Philadelphia here 1 to 0. Walsh and Houck performed in a pitching duel, the latter retiring to allow Coombs to bat for him. Two hits were made off Houck. Walsh struck out 11 men, three of them in a row, and he did not allow a hit until the eighth and ninth innings, when the visitors made three scratch singles.

SIMPLY A TOSS-UP.

What Hugh Jennings Thinks of Coming World's Series.

Detroit, Sept. 19.—Hugh Jennings has expressed his opinion of the coming battle between the Red Sox and Giants, saying that a choice between the two teams was simply a toss-up. He pointed out certain weaknesses in each team, saying that, in his opinion, they offset each other.

"The Giants have the advantage which experience brings," he said, "but Stahl's team has the edge over the Giants on strength. I think Boston has a harder hitting club and a stronger fielding club, the difference in fielding being in Boston's great outfield.

"Both teams are game, equally so. New York showed gameness last Summer when they came back after their slump and held their lead against the onslaught of the Chicago Cubs. No one ever was heard to question the gameness of Boston. Stahl's team is game, if anything.

"In this series much will depend upon managers, and in this respect McGraw has the edge on Stahl, having been through years of nerve-racking battles, winning several pennants and taking part in several world's series.

"In my opinion, Tesreau will be the most effective pitcher for New York. Wood and Collins should be best for Boston. In the catching department it is a stand-off. Carrigan is brainy; Meyers can hit."

SESSION OF GRIDIRONERS

Officials, Managers, Coaches and Captains Are to Confer Saturday

New York, Sept. 18.—Football officials, including coaches, managers and captains of colleges and high school teams throughout the East, have been invited to meet with the central board of football officials here next Saturday for a conference in order to secure an interpretation of the rules adopted last Spring, making football quite a changed game this Fall. The date of the meeting is coincident with the opening of the football season with several minor games in the East, and the use of the new rules for the first time.

Walter Camp will preside at the conference and attempt to aid the football leaders in the interpretation of the changes, which include as features the addition of an extra down, alteration of the field so as to allow a 10-yard space behind each goal line to be retained for use of the forward pass, and the elimination of the 20-yard zone, to which the forward pass formerly was restricted on the field.

Many Driven From Home

Every year, in many parts of the country, thousands are driven from their homes by coughs and lung diseases. Friends and business are left behind for other climates, but this is costly and not always sure. A better way—the way of multitudes—is to use Dr. King's New Discovery and cure yourself at home. Stay right there, with your friends, and take this safe medicine. Throat and lung troubles find quick relief and health returns. Its help in coughs, colds, grip, croup, whooping cough and sore lungs make it a positive blessing. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by R. R. Bellamy.

JOE TINKER PICKS TESREAU.

Says He Will be King Pin of Slabmen in World's Series.

New York, Sept. 19.—Joe Tinker, shortstop and acting manager of the Cubs, made some interesting comments yesterday regarding the Giants' chances with the Red Sox in the coming world's series.

"Luck may cut a big figure in these games," said Tinker, "and if McGraw has a fair share of it or a shade the Giants may turn the trick. But they will have to play steadier and more aggressive ball than they've shown against the Cubs this year. I haven't seen the Red Sox, consequently I am not in a position to say much about them, but it's practically a sure thing that their pitchers, especially Joe Wood, are going to bother the Giants a whole lot.

"Tesreau will be the Giants' kingpin. You can bet on that. He's a reproduction of Ed Walsh, of the White Sox, in physique, courage and delivery, though, of course, he lacks Walsh's confidence and experience. But Tesreau's spitball is a wonder, for you can't hit it even when you think you know just how it is going to cross the plate. Speed is everything and when coupled with the moist fling you're up against it. It wouldn't surprise me a bit to see Matty at his best. The veteran always seems to be there in a pinch. He's got the head and the nerve, also the knowledge even if he doesn't possess the great speed of former years.

"Marquard has a weakness which he can't overcome. He cannot hide his delivery. By that I mean that it is possible to tell by the way he holds the ball whether he intends to use a curve or a fast shoot. I told McGraw about this defect before the world's series last year, but Mac said it didn't matter. The Athletics, however, got the hang of Marquard just because they watched him narrowly. The Rube also had lost the jump on his fast ball. I don't know the reason for it, but it is true nevertheless, and he'll be handicapped because of it.

"In the games we have played against the Giants this week some of us have come to the conclusion that Arthur Wilson is a better catcher—a better man for inside team work—than Chief Meyers. Wilson has more ginger and fight in him than the Indian and looms up like one of the best catchers in the profession. There's another thing about the Giants that we have noticed. They seem to stand still too much. That is to say they don't pull ogeher enough when the pace is hot. We have won the series from them just because we have excelled them in this respect. We are going to pull for the Giants against the Red Sox because we are National Leaguers, heart and soul, but McGraw's men, we fear, may not be able to make enough runs to help out their pitching staff. Still the series doesn't look like a sure thing for either team, and as I said before, if McGraw gets a few good breaks in the luck New York may prove victorious. Let us hope so, anyway."

PITCHER JOE WOOD.

He is the Idol of the Boston Big League Club.

Boston, Sept. 18.—Christy Mathewson and Rube Marquard, of New York, may be the princes of the National League pitchers; big Ed Walsh may be the Bull Moose of the Chicago White Sox, and the mighty Walter Johnson, of Washington, may be the best bet of Washington, but the Boston baseball public swears by the prowess of young Joe Wood. Smoky Joe is the pride of every Bostonian, and is as much a part of the baseball-crazy town as are its baked beans and brown bread on Saturday.

Younger than any of the quartette previously mentioned, the Kansas Cyclone, as he is familiarly called in Beantown, has attracted the attention of the entire country by his marvelous box work during the last four years. Now that the Red Sox have met the world's champions and sent them down, fans all over the United States are looking up their dope books the figures on the Boston team and Joe Wood in particular. Upon young Wood, even more than on This Speaker, Wagner, Larry Gardner, Bill Carrigan and Jake Stahl, do the American League partisans pin their hopes of winning the championship of the world in baseball.

This year he has a record of 31 games won and four lost.

Already he has to his credit more games than any other pitcher in either of the big leagues won last season, with the exception of Big Jack Coombs, of the Athletics, and Grover Cleveland Alexander, of the Phillies.

No one imagines that Wood will not better his average in the remaining games of the season. In short, with fair luck, Wood is not unlikely to set a new big league record this year.

Only one pitcher in either league finished the season last year with as good a percentage as Wood has now. That was Covington, of Detroit, but as he figured in only eight won-and-lost games, it would be hardly fair to compare Wood's average with that of the Detroit man.

In 36 games this year Wood has made 39 hits in 104 times at bat, or an average of .288. Eleven of his hits have been for two-bases, one was a three bagger and one was a home run. He has four sacrifice hits to his credit, and has scored 11 runs. In the field he has made but four errors, while making 32 put-outs and 91 assists. This gives him a fielding average of .969.

AUTO FOR JAKE STAHL.

Popular Subscription is Started in Boston for This Purpose.

(Special to Washington Post.)

Boston, Sept. 19.—A popular subscription has been started for the purpose of purchasing an automobile for Jake Stahl, manager of the Red Sox. The fans desire to give him a token to express their appreciation of his leadership of the first team in years to bring a big league pennant to Boston.

A newspaper is receiving subscriptions at the suggestion of A. W. Barnard, a loyal rooter, and any amount up to $10 is being received. Already enough money has been contributed to insure a good car, and the chances are that by the time the team returns to Boston from the West the fund will be large enough to purchase the best automobile there is.

By nature some men are hot and some are cold. Where one man has money to burn, another will freeze onto it.

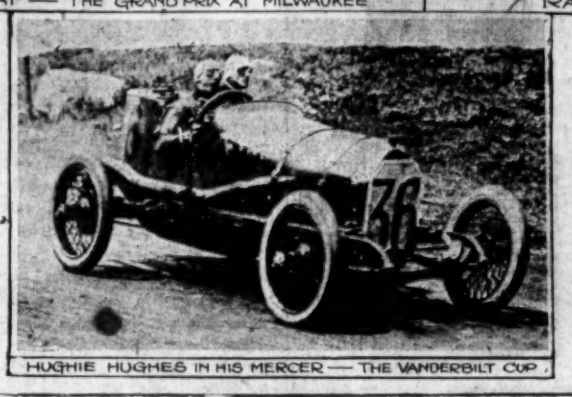
FAMOUS DRIVERS WILL PILOT CARS IN THE GRAND PRIX AT MILWAUKEE.

CALEB BRAGG IN HIS FIAT — THE GRAND PRIX AT MILWAUKEE

RALPH DE PALMA

First of the events of Milwaukee's speed carnival, the Grand Prix race, will be run September 24 over a course of 8.2 miles in length. The circuit, which was improved at a cost of more than $25,000, has proven itself to be one of the speediest of road courses in America, and the race drivers, who have tried it out, are of opinion that some new road race records will be hung up. Practice has been going on all during the last week. That the race for the Grand Prize Cup of the Automobile Club of America will be a fine contest from start to finish is made certain by the character of the drivers who are entered in it.

David Bruce-Brown, the two time winner of the Grand Prize race in America, will be seen at the wheel of a monster Fiat machine. Ralph De Palma and "Hughie" Hughes, the drivers who captured the loftiest honors at Elgin, are entered. De Palma will drive a Mercedes, and Hughes will be seen at the wheel of his wire wheeled Mercer.



HUGHIE HUGHES IN HIS MERCER — THE VANDERBILT CUP.

"Teddy" Tetzlaff, the best known of Western drivers, who averaged 78.5 miles an hour in the Santa Monica road race, will be a team mate of Bruce-Brown, and Caleb Bragg will also drive a Fiat. Bragg alternated with Tetzlaff in the 550 mile race at Indianapolis last May, and scored second place with him.

The speed king, "Bob" Burman, who has beaten everything but a bullet, will be at the wheel of a Benz machine. Erwin Bergdoll will be a team mate of Burman, as will also "Joe" Dawson, the winner of the last 500 mile race at Indianapolis, provided he is reinstated by the contest board of the American Automobile Association.

MACK PICKS THE RED SOX.

Thinks They Will Beat Giants as Easily as Athletics Did.

(Special to Washington Post.)

Philadelphia, Sept. 19.—"I honestly think the Boston Red Sox will win the world's championship of 1912 with as much ease as we captured it in 1910-1911", said Connie Mack in Chicago today. "I not only think they'll win the honors, but I sincerely hope and trust in their ability to do so. The Boston team is, without question, the best team in the American League circuit today, and will, I hope, prove their superiority over the National League.

"This business of telling how many games it will take is going a little too far. No man ever lived who could do this with any certainty, as it is really a matter of guesswork. Possibly the Red Sox may disappoint as the Giants may spring a surprise. But unless the unforeseen happens, the Boston Red Sox, to my mind, will share the big end of the world's championship burse of 1912.

"Some people are under the impression that the Red Sox are liable to quiver when the big games are staged, which seems foolish when one considers how well the Boston team is seasoned. In looking the team over, there is hardly what you could call a cub or youngster, but at the same time don't get the impression I am trying to make one believe the Red Sox is an old team. No, indeed.

"They are what I would term a club just about right for such an important set of games. From Jake Stahl down the team is composed of fellows who have little or no nerve to shake when it comes to a pinch. All tried and true, they should go into the series just as they have the regular season games, and if they do—well, I have little doubt as to what the final result will be."

—A horse attached to a delivery wagon of Mr. L. T. New, the grocer, ran away at Third and Castle streets early last night. The animal became frightened at something and running up on the sidewalk between a tree and a fence, a panel of the latter was torn out. Mr. New, who occupied the wagon, was thrown out, but was fortunately not seriously injured. The horse freed himself from the wagon and dashed on down the street until he was later caught.

ROWDY EXCURSIONISTS.

Kinston Young Man Cut—Silk Mill to Start—Other Notes.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Kinston, N. C., Sept. 19.—An excursion to Norfolk over the lines of the Norfolk Southern road was productive of an unusual amount of disorder, careless displaying of arms, affrays, etc., and when a boisterous negro overstepped the racial line, trouble was precipitated which nearly ended seriously. The darkey passed through a coach filled with whites as many as half a dozen times, and in an arrogant manner drew the ire of a passenger on each occasion. The black, after being remonstrated with impudently took up a position in the vestibule and dared anyone to finish up the dispute in a more substantial manner. John Kearney, about 21, on a recreation mission to the Virginia shore resorts, and feeling his oats, called the intruder's bluff, and was assaulted by the intoxicated man with a knife. In a flash the white boy had been cut over the forehead, on the right cheek, and his left wrist almost severed. Other excursionists crowded about the injured youth, seeking to aid him, and the assailant escaped, leaping from the moving train. Kearney bled profusely, and his wounds looked exceedingly dangerous. Some one on the car with a knowledge of first aid corded his injured arm above the gash, thus stopping the flow of blood, and in this fashion, suffering pain from his wounds and almost unconscious, he was taken into Edenton, and there turned over to a physician by the railroad people. The affair occurred 19 miles from the town, and Kearney had lost a great deal of blood from the minor wounds before arriving there. The negro was from Newbern, a medium-sized black fellow, and peaceable colored passengers said he had announced his intention to "raise hell." He had taken a star part in diabolical demonstrations which had caused much uneasiness in the colored cars, and bullied unassuming negroes into a state of nervous fear. Kearney was sent back to this city. He lost every cent he had in the excitement, and this being the return destination called for by his ticket, sympathetic people had to pay the young man's way from here to his home near Snow Hill.

Carey Stroud, a well known young man of this city, was found dead in a livery stable managed by him at the corner of Heritage and King streets at 9 o'clock at night. The body was lying on a pile of fodder when found by a patron of the stables. Death was due to heart failure following alcoholic excess, a period of which Stroud was trying to end by suddenly stopping drinking. He was 30 years of age, well connected, and a young man of some business ability. The funeral was largely attended.

As soon as the silk market arrives at a more stable status, the operation of a large silk mill in the northeastern suburbs of Kinston, idle for several years, will be recommenced, it was definitely stated yesterday. Artesian wells are being bored and other improvements made at the property preparatory to beginning business again. Rev. W. T. Thurston, a colored man who was superintendent of the plant before it went into the hands of a receiver, is said to be taking steps for the resumption of work in a short while, although the exact period which will intervene before the reopening is determined upon depends entirely upon the coming of a condition in the market which will warrant the venture. The silk mill, which is located in a two-story brick building originally constructed as a furniture factory, was a failure in the first attempt to operate it, some six or seven years ago. One management after another failed to make the enterprise pay, the colored superintendent, Thurston, more nearly accomplishing this than anyone else. The business, operated by the Kinston Spinning Company, with W. H. Ashley, of New Jersey, the principal stockholder, finally went under. The business has been taken over by the Kinston Real Estate Company, with the New Jersey man again holding the greatest interest. E. M. Land was the receiver for the holding litigants.

KITCHIN IN CUMBERLAND.

Governor Speaks at Fayetteville and at St. Paul, N. C.

(Fayetteville Observer, 19th.)

Governor W. W. Kitchin spoke in the hourt house here this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, in advocacy of his nomination for United States Senator. He was introduced by H. McD. Robinson, Esq.

The Governor was warm in his praise of Woodrow Wilson, Democratic nominee for the Presidency. He preached the doctrine of progressiveness, and appealed to all Democrats to stand together on a progressive platform, with Wilson as their leader, a man who was under no obligations to the trusts or any of the "interests."

As usual, the Governor paid his respects to Senator Simmons and his record, from which record he claimed that the Senator was not a Democrat.

The Governor had a good big audience, especially for the inconvenient hour at which the speaking was held. Of course, he made a fine speech, for he is an eloquent and powerful speaker. His arraignment of the Republican party was scathing and to the point, while the claims of the Democratic party were well put and plain. The speech was a patriotic one, and bore the impress of a man who loves his country.

Governor Kitchin spoke at St. Paul, Robeson county, last night to a large crowd, the public hall where the speaking was held being packed.

The following gentlemen of this city went down in automobiles to hear the Governor speak: J. C. Gibbs, Sol. W. Cooper, Dr. Wm. S. Jordan, W. T. Bowen, J. Sprunt Newton, W. M. Walker, Dr. J. V. McGougan, W. E. Kindley. Governor Kitchin came to Fayetteville after the speaking in Dr. McGougan's auto. He is the guest while here of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Bowen, on Green street.

SIMMONS AT LEXINGTON

Senior Senator Delivers Telling Speech In Davidson County

Lexington, Sept. 18.—Senator F. M. Simmons made a great speech here tonight to an audience of voters that crowded the Court House to the doors. Almost every township in the county was represented. He was introduced by J. F. Spruill, in an enthusiastic speech and was received with great enthusiasm.

Senator Simmons opened his speech by recalling the time, 20 years ago, when he decided to consecrate his life to the service of his country and he declared that he had tried to do his duty. He devoted the first 15 minutes of his speech to a review of his record and then launched into a discussion of Democratic measures.

He outlined three prevailing conceptions of the word "progressive," the Republican definition, the Roosevelt progressive and the Democratic. He declared that the Baltimore platform is the Democratic definition of "progressive." He attacked the record of the Republican party as to the tariff. In 1908 the Republicans were entrusted with the government because it had promised tariff revision downward. Then came the Payne-Aldrich bill and for this iniquity the country rebuked the party in 1910 and a Democratic House was the result. The House passed Democratic tariff bills that fulfilled Democratic promises.

At this point Senator Simmons gave some interesting history as to his struggle as Democratic leader in the Senate, to put these bills through a Republican Senate and up to President Taft, who vetoed them. He declared that the work of the Democrats in the session just closed had made it plain that the Republican party could not be trusted with tariff revision.

He followed this with a discussion of the trust record of the Republican party, declaring that no trust has ever been harmed by either Taft or Roosevelt, the latter allowing several thousand to be formed during his administration and the former "busting" them in a way that boosted the value of their stocks.

He discussed briefly half a dozen other planks of the Democratic platform, including limitation of campaign expenses, direct election of Senators ,parcels post, post roads, waterways and consevation of natural resources.

Senator Simmons repeated his offer to resign in case he is not elected to the chairmanship of the finance committee. "But they are saying," he remarked, "that I can safely say that, for Mr. Craig will reappoint me. I am proud to have it said that if that great North Carolinian were choosing a Senator he would select me, but I promise you that I will not ask him to appoint me. However, I will ask him to withhold the appointment until the executive committee can call a primary and I will ask him to name the man who wins in that." He was frequently interrupted by applause and held his big audience to the finish, speaking for more than two hours.

An unusual occurrence was the failure of the electric lights two or three times, but through the periods of darkness the speaker never faltered and the audience listened without the slightest disorder.

CRAIG RECEIVES CHALLENGE.

Has No Objection to Meeting Settle. Ceremonial Session.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Asheville, N. C., Sept. 19.—Hon. Locke Craig has just received Thomas Settle's challenge for a joint debate on the political issues and he gave out a statement today which in effect is that the matter is with the executive committee; that he would be glad to meet Settle if it would be satisfactorily arranged. He said, however, that he could not give his whole time to Mr. Settle as he would have to recognize the Roosevelt wing of the party, as he thinks an overwhelming majority of Republicans would vote for Roosevelt. He has special engagements lasting until October 12th. He did not think the people were very much interested in the liquor question. He was very much pleased with the political situation.

"Dokkies" from all over the State gathered here today for a ceremonial session at the Battery Park Hotel, which took place tonight. They are members of Suez Temple No. 75, and the principal cause of the meeting was to initiate candidates. About 40 tyros were initiated after which a banquet was held.

MASONIC CEREMONIES.

Bolton Lodge Pays Respect to Memory of Deceased Comrade.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Bolton, N. C., Sept. 19.—Sunday, September 8th, was the day set apart by the Bolton Lodge of Masons for paying the last tribute of respect to the memory of Owen Howell by giving to him the rites of Masonic burial. The deceased, who was a member of the lodge, died some weeks ago. His remains were laid to rest in the cemetery of Western Prong church, near Whiteville, and here the sacred ceremony was performed. Quite a number of Masons and a few others attended the service from Bolton. They, upon reaching Whiteville by rail, secured ample and convenient conveyances for the remainder of the journey through the kindness of Mr. Ammons, Sheriff Richardson and Hon. I. B. Tucker. Long before the hour for the opening of the service, the churchyard was thronged with relatives and friends of Mr. Howell.

After the congregation in general had assembled in the building the members of the order headed by Hon. I. B. Tucker, of Whiteville, and Mr. C. F. Ashley, of Bolton, marched into the church and were seated on the right of the speaker. All wore white gloves, aprons and other paraphernalia becoming the dignity of the order. The funeral sermon was preached by Rev. F. T. Wooten. In a very forceful and impressive manner he enlightened his hearers on the history and mission of the grand old order of Masons. Not one who heard that able discourse can but have a deeper admiration for the fraternity. After the sermon was ended the procession repaired to the grave where the services were concluded. Here the ceremonies were conducted by Mr. Tucker and each member performed his part of the service in a way that added beauty and solemnity to the occasion. The only thing to be lamented in connection with the event was the absence of some of the prominent members of the Bolton Lodge, Mr. D. W. Merritt, Dr. Smith and others, on account of the sad accident which occurred very early on the morning of that day.

Your correspondent should not close without expressing appreciation of the kind hospitality of the people living in the community of Western Prong church. It has never been the privilege of the writer to visit a pleasanter or more genial host than Mr. E. C. Wooten, and the many good things on his table were enjoyed by a large number of visitors. His very cordial invitation to return will be long remembered.

The ready response of the Whiteville Lodge and others to the call of help from Bolton was greatly appreciated, and the services rendered contributed much to the success of the occasion. The Bolton lodge is at present rather small and since its organization has lost a number of members, but under the able and efficient management of its worthy master, Mr. C. F. Ashley, it is steadily growing and hopes to be able to do great things in the future.

Are You Blue and Worried?

Nervous? Some of the time really ill? Catch cold easily and frequently suffer from biliousness or headache? The reason is that your system does not rid itself of the poisons in the blood; just as impossible as it is for the grate of a stove to rid itself of clinkers. The waste does to us exactly what the clinkers do to the stove; make the fires burn low until enough clinkers have accumulated and then prevent its burning at all. Your liver is sluggish—you are dull and heavy—sleep does not rest, nor is food appetizing. In this condition illness develops. Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery eradicates the poisons from the body—a glyceric alterative extract made from bloodroot, golden seal and mandrake root, stone and queen's root, without the use of alcohol. No matter how strong the constitution the stomach is apt to be "out of kilter" at times; in consequence the blood is disordered, for the stomach is the laboratory for the constant manufacture of blood.

MRS. BLAKE.

MRS. RENZ BLAKE, of Fort Dover, Ont., Box 36, writes: "I have been a great sufferer for years from throat trouble, catarrh, indigestion, female troubles, bloating, constipation and nervousness—at times I would be in bed, then able to be up again. Was under many different doctors' care, and would get better for a little while, then I would go down with chronic inflammation all through me. For nineteen years I had this poison in my blood. After trying nearly everything I got worse. I read in The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. I have taken the 'Golden Medical Discovery' and 'Pleasant Pellets,' and have used five bottles of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. I am now able to do my work and walk with pleasure. I feel like a new woman. I enjoy everything around me and thank God for letting me live long enough to find something that made me well again."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate liver and bowels.

Who put the meter in the Maine Barometer?

Self-made millionaires are all right, provided that they are honest. The people are after the law-made millionaires.—Index-Appeal.

The Star figths no Democrat, and it does not approve attacks on Democrats by Democrats. All hands had better be swatting the Republican and Bull Moose standpatters.

Mr. Stefanson, the arctic explorer, claims to have found a white race living in the arctic beyond the haunts of the Esquimaux. His statement is interesting to even the absentees from Missouri.

George W. Perkins says his campaign subscription for the election of Colonel Roosevelt is an investment for his children. The Colonel must think all the Perkins children are grand children.

"Nations are not fed, clothed and housed by legislation," says a sapient contemporary. Certainly not. But it sometimes pays well to be a member of a Legislature, just the same.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Vice President Sherman is keeping quiet during this campaign because "his health was impaired by the arduous duties of presiding over the Senate at the last session of Congress." Probably Sunny Jim is taking a sun bath on the fence.

When a Democrat deserts and goes over to the range of the tub-footed elephant or into the browzing grounds of the Bull Moose, it is time enough to charge that he has flunked, flopped, floundered and proven a traitor to Democracy. Let Democrats be charitable.

The New York World mentions a woman aviator who is so modest she won't fly by daylight and only takes her flights at night. Guess her night gown is the regular aviation style and is as pretty as the gowns which other lady flyers wear in their daylight exhibitions.

Among the humorosities of the campaign is the serious denial that a personal attack is made when a man is charged with acts which would impugn his public honor, make him guilty of perfidy, and convict him of being a traitor to his party. "Flow, gently, sweet Afton!"

The Hon. Rolla Wells is treasurer of the National Democratic Campaign Fund. The Star will send him your campaign subscription if you want to aid in the election of Woodrow Wilson. In little more than six weeks, we will go to the polls, and if you want your money to help the peoples' cause it should be sent at once. Contribute to The Star fund.

Quite similar to the Senatorial fight in North Carolina, the Democracy of Tennessee is also undergoing a campaign for the Senatorship and State official nominations to be settled at a primary to be held on the 5th of November, when the National election takes place. Thus, while North Carolina and Tennessee Democrats should be putting in every lick they can for the State and National tickets, they are warring against themselves over nominations that should have been made early in the campaign. North Carolina witnesses the sorrowful spectacle presented by Senatorial candidates who are out making speeches for the State and National tickets, while two of the Senatorial aspirants are attacking the third who is thus compelled to devote some of each of his speeches to fanning off the bricks thrown at him inside the ranks.

A WARY ENEMY WATCHES.

It is a bad policy for Democratic candidates and papers to assail Democratic officials on records which it is absolutely necessary to defend in order to justify support of the party. Platform platitudes do not constitute Democracy, but the party's record is what the party is. That record is made for the party by its officials who serve the people, so their record necessarily and logically is the party's record. If a party's representatives do not make a justifiable record then a party has no record that can be defended.

The Republican party in North Carolina was not condemned and spewed out by an outraged people on what it professed to be but because of its intolerable record—that is the record made for it by its executive and representative men, who made it a record that is a lingering stench in the nostrils of men who love North Carolina and possess State pride. These men gave an execrably bad character to the Republican party and they made its character so infamous and reeking that even no respectable Republican would for a moment pretend to defend it.

Such is not the case with the Democratic party in North Carolina. Democrats are proud of the record made for the party and the State by its representative men. If a few mistakes have been made they are not of the infamous nature that characterized Republicanism and fusionism in the days that the white men of North Carolina laid aside conservatism and tolerance till they could redeem their State from the horrible nightmare of mongrelism.

We are woefully mistaken in North Carolinians if they are ready to repudiate any Democrat, big or little, who was in line and led or fought in the glorious and serious struggle to restore white supremacy in North Carolina and who clinched that victory by throwing about their beloved State the protection of qualified suffrage. That purified suffrage is the embattled wall that stands between North Carolina and the vampires who would swarm in and debauch, ruin and humiliate the State and the proud and loyal element of her people. We cannot conceive that any loyal North Carolinian could be so obsessed with either ambition or folly as to do anything that would make a breach in the wall which stands between North Carolina and the crowd which camps outside ready to rush in and fasten themselves like leaches upon the body politic of the Good Old North State.

Don't the Democrats of North Carolina know that they have to stand together for the protection of the State which they redeemed in the bitter contest of 1898? Don't they realize that if the ranks of the defenders divide, that fight will have to be fought over again, with less hope of winning than in the days when the color line could be drawn with telling effect? Do they realize that the discontent of 10,000 white men in North Carolina would array outside the Democratic stronghold a force that might break over and capture North Carolina and despoil her? The same old leaders of the blackfoot cohorts are beating the bushes and prowling like jackals to pounce on North Carolina. The same Marion Butler, with the same whiskers, the same sinister plotting, and the same furtive purpose and selfish design, is slinking from one camp to the other among the hungry horde that is camping for a fray with the white men who fought and won the fight of white supremacy, decency and civilization in the darkest days since the black pall of reconstruction hung over the Tar Heel State.

The other enemies of North Carolina and of her loyal Democracy also have buckled on the armor and it is "the same old crowd", hungry and consumed with gluttonous desire to get back to the flesh pots. They appear to be divided, but the North Carolinian who has an ounce of brains knows they have a common cause and will fuse now or later at the crack of the whip when there is hope of a combined assault on Democracy. The fusion crowd is at present in confusion, but it is the same old wolfish pack, starving and gaunt, and ready to get together, regardless of principle, on the moment they see a breach leading to the spoils. All deflections from the Democracy will augment either the G. O. P. or the Bull Moose contingent, or both, and everybody knows that they are only the two wings of the vampire, ready to flop together when the time comes for sucking blood. An increase in either camp means ultimately a greater combined force to route Democracy and capture North Carolina. Tennessee is today giving us a living and melancholy example of division and fusion. "Birds of a feather will flock together." They will flock together soon or late when there are crumbs to be picked up by the flock. Make no mistake about that. The cormorant sits and watches for its chance.

Don't the Democrats of North Carolina know that leading and loyal Democrats who fought her battles in her gloomiest days, and also are fighting Democracy's battles today, would be loyal in another hour of need and sore distress for North Carolina? Don't they know that no Democrat of prominence is disloyal today? Don't they know that if any were disloyal they would not today be in the Democratic camp, ready to battle for the success of Democracy and the election of Woodrow Wilson? Then why should North Carolina Democrats give the least heed to any cry of disloyalty on the part of any Democrat?

Except for the gravest reasons, it is a grievous and foolhardy thing for Democrats and Democratic newspapers to impugn the political integrity, party honor, and public fidelity of the leaders of the party. There is no element of sane leadership in men who or papers which create distrust, destroy confidence, and breed dissention among loyal North Carolinians. That means a widening of the breach in the face of a wily and resourceful enemy ready to quote one Democrat against another with the purpose of weakening if not destroying the records of all, and worse than all, the record of the party. Out of the mouths of Democrats will come condemnation of Democracy. The enemies of Democracy held no Democratic record sacredly and they surely will stir and boil together all the records and make a broth that will make North Carolinians sick. They will heat the cauldron to a white heat and it will be a case of "bubble, bubble, toil and trouble" for North Carolina. They will gloat over getting the Tar Heel Democracy into a stew and it will be a mess of crow that the fusionists and confusionists will gleefully set out for Democratic gourmandizers.

Be not deceived! The Republicans, the Armageddonites and the Third Termites are stirring up trouble and salting it down for the Democracy. With malice aforethought, they are storing up huge gobs of distrust, great hunks of dissatisfaction, large dabs of envy, and numerous wads of dissention, and they will add Republican malice and Bull Moose prejudice with which to poison the minds of men who may lend a willing ear to a ding dong tale that will be told by the haters of the Democracy that has done so much for North Carolina.

What must we think of those who for any reason would sow dissention and discord and create factions in the Democratic ranks? How many speeches by Democrats, how many articles from Democratic papers, and how many communications published by Democrats, have been garnered by the poison squad of the opposition and will later be hurled into the teeth of confused Democrats?

The real Democratic leader is the one who plays on a harp whose tune is harmony. He has no knife up his sleeve. He has no spear for his brother. He has his batteries trained against the foe. He has North Carolina next to his heart in a fond embrace like that of a Vance or an Aycock!

Where is the big, unselfish, loyal Democrat who shall lead all the people, united in trust, in confidence, and in purpose? Where is the able, broad, and great North Carolinian who would spurn the very appearance of being a militant scold and griller, content with being the champion of a squad of facionists? Some other States have followed the lead of factionists and extremists, but North Carolina wants a man with an equilibrator. The big stick, the pitchfork, the steam roller, and the roaster should be gently and reverently laid on the junk heap.

DETROIT WILL INSURE ITSELF.

In order to be on the safe side, the city of Detroit will insure itself under the new "Workman's Compensation Act," passed by the Michigan Legislature. Under the new State law, when a workman is killed his dependents go on the pension list of his employer and become beneficiaries of remuneration for 300 weeks, or about six years, at half the amount of the wages for which he was working at the time of death. According to the new law, injured employes will draw a loss indemnity or remuneration in proportion to their disability.

The Workman's Compensation Act which is now the law throughout Michigan, expressly includes the liability of the State itself, and all municipal, county and township governments. Of course, it also places liability upon all individual and corporate employers. Of course, recovery depends upon the negligence of the employer, with the slim chance of proving contributory negligence on the part of an employe.

The law is making Michigan cities sit up and take notice. The city officials of Detroit have taken up the matter, and have come to the conclusion that the city will save money by insuring against injuries, owing to the many accidents for which the city is more than apt to be held liable.

The Detroit authorities have decided to insure if arrangements can be made, and unless cities want to take the risk themselves and trust to good luck and the courts, there is liable to be a big boost for the insurance business. The heads of the different municipal departments of Detroit met on Tuesday with the ways and means committee of the Common Council and discussed the law and the insurance question.

The agent of a liability company was present to give estimates on risks and the possibility of accidents. The committee and all the department heads concurred in the plan for safeguarding the city by insurance and the proposition will be put up to the Common Council for their action at an early session.

A law so stringent as that in Michigan will cause cities to take every precauton against the death or injury of its employes, especially where the work is hazardous. In case of accidents it will also cause municipal authorities to make careful investigations and accurate records of accidents so that cities can make as good a showing as possible in the event of suits.

CURRENT COMMENT.

Roosevelt got his best policies from Lincoln, all right. Lincoln, Neb.—Columbia State.

Roosevelt so far has denied about everything except Perkins and Bill Flinn.—Ledger-Dispatch.

No party can ever carry an election if it has to carry the candidates.—Charleston News and Courier.

The reason Virginia's political machine is so conspicuous must be because it is an 1895 model.—Staunton Leader.

Mrs. "Gyp, The Blood" has had her pictures in the New York bournal and the wife of "Lefty Louie" has been interviewed by a woman reporter. What more could their distinguished husbands ask?—Baltimore Sun.

So far as The Observer has been able to learn, there is but one member of the State Democratic executive committee that is in favor of Mr. Locke Craig entering into a joint debate with Mr. Thomas Settle, the Republican nominee for Governor. There is every reason why Mr. Craig should not do this and no good reason why he should do so. The Observer some days ago went on record in the matter. It is to be hoped that the executive committee will order Mr. Craig to conduct his own campaign upon the plan already entered upon. The very best reason to be advanced against the acceptance of Settle's "challenge" is in the fact that the Republicans see in it a chance to make capital at Democratic expense and want it.—Charlotte Observer.

When the courts refuse to consider a case because it is political they give the people the strongest of reasons to pass emphatic judgment upon the matter themselves. Thus far no judge has interferred by judicial process with the theft of the Republican name and emblems by Roosevelt managers in various States. This performance is irregular, unfair and in a sense dishonest, for it enables a party to maintain a false pretense, but the remedy is not at law. It is to be sought at the polls. In every State where the third termers are masquerading as regular Republicans it is easily within the power of the voters to punish the deception and make a lasting example of those who have practised it. A vote for Gov. Wilson will do the business. Republicans who are scanadlized by the quarrels of their leaders will find that in this way they can settle a good many other political questions, to say nothing of some old scores.—New York World.

J. P. MORGAN TO BUILD

Financier Will Erect Huge Building On a $4,000,000 Site

(Special to Baltimore Sun).

New York, Sept. 18.—The new bank building with which the firm of J. P. Morgan & Co., will soon improve the old Drexel corner at Wall and Broad streets is to include not only the present site of the Drexel Building but the two adjoining sites at 29 to 33 Wall street.

This property is owned and in part occupied by the Mechanics and Metals National Bank. Precisely what arrangement has been entered into between the Mechanics and Metals and the firm of J. P. Morgan & Co., could not be learned today, but the Morgan firm is understood to have bought the real estate outright.

The Tax Department puts a valuation of $1,620,000 on the Mechanics and Metals property at 29 to 33 Wall street. The Morgan firm's property is valued at $2,700,000. This makes a total of $4,420,000 for the combined properties, of which $3,870,000 represents the land and $450,000 the buildings.

About a year ago Mr. Morgan took a lease of the top floor of the New Bankers' Trust Company Building diagonally opposite, at Wall and Nassau streets. For this the yearly rental was reported at $24,000. Early this Summer Mr. Morgan's firm acquired the Drexel Building, in which it had been tenant for many years. The immediate corner, however, would not measure up to modern standards of size, being less than 10,000 square feet. With the adjoining lots the site will measure about 16,000 square feet, with more than 150 feet on Wall street.

Aunt Sally's Advice to Beauty-Seekers

C. M. P.: The neck should receive similar attention to that given the complexion, so color and texture of skin will be the same. A yellow neck and a white face give a discordant effect. I advise using for both neck and complexion, the treatment recommended to "Monica."

F. M.: First, stop scowling, if you would get rid of the lines between the eyes. The best application for such lines, and all wrinkles, is a solution of powdered saxolite, 1 ounce, dissolved in witch hazel, 1-2 pint. Bathe the face in this daily until entirely relieved.

Monica: You hardly need such a list of cosmetics as you mention. Ordinary mercolized wax will help you more than any or all of them. It will gradually absorb the withered, discolored complexion and you will soon have a new, youthful and healthy-looking skin. You needn't get more than an ounce of the wax, which will cost you little at any druggist's. Apply nightly, like cold cream, washing it off mornings.—Woman's Realm.

THE WILSON-MARSHALL FUND

We have received a number of contributions to the Wilson-Marshall Campaign Fund, but not quite enough to indicate a Democratic landslide in New Hanover county. Gov. Wilson expressed the desire that his campaign expenses be covered by a popular subscription, in small amounts, from voters all over the country. It is only seven weeks now to the election and every Democrat who can do so should aid with his money. We hope that from now on there will be a general and very liberal response from the Democrats of New Hanover county.

If you will notify us, we will send for your contribution and forward it promptly to the Democratic National Committee. 'Phone 129 or 882.

Chandler, Okla.—"For six years I suffered with severe pains in the pit of my stomach, back and sides," writes Mrs. Ella Flowers, from this place. "I tried several different medicines, but did not get any relief.

When I first wrote you for advice, I thought I was past help, but can truthfully say that Cardui, the woman's tonic, relieved me at once. I gained at least 10 pounds, and every body says I look so much better.

I hardly know how to thank you, for the good that Cardui has done me.

If you think that the publication of this letter will be the means of inducing other suffering women to try Cardui, publish it by all means."

There are thousands of women today, suffering from some form of womanly trouble. Are you of this number? If so, have you tried Cardui, as Mrs. Flowers did? Have you read her symptoms? Do they seem similar to yours? Cardui made her well, as it has made many other ladies well. Why shouldn't it make you well, too? We think it will. Try it.

TOMORROW IS YOM KIPPUR

Day of Atonement Will be Observed by Those of the Jewish Faith in Wilmington—Services at Temple of Israel.

Members of the Jewish faith in Wilmington—and there are many—will fittingly observe the Day of Atonement, or Yom Kippur, which begins at 6 P. M. today and continues through tomorrow. This is a season of Jewish feasts and the holiest day of the Jewish calendar is Yom Kippur, which is spent in prayer and meditation. Services will be held this evening at 6 o'clock at the Temple of Israel, conducted by the Rabbi, Rev. Dr. S. Mendelsohn. Relative to the Jewish fast and feast days the following from yesterday's Charlotte Observer will be of interest:

"According to the Jewish ritual, the year which began on September 12 is the 5,673rd since the creation of the world. Rash Hashanah, the first day of the new year, marks the beginning of a long list of Jewish fast and feast days and calendars have already been prepared and circulated among the Jewish people to show on which of the English dates the principal religious holidays will fall during the coming year.

"Of particular interest is the number and character of the great fast and feast days that fall within the next few weeks. Rosh Hashanah, the new year, has already come and gone. The holiest day in the calendar will come Saturday, September 21, which is Yom Kippur, the Holy Day, the Day of Atonement, when all Jews are commanded to fast the entire day with prayers and devotions for atonement. This is the day on which all orthodox Jews attempt propitiation and atonement for the sins of the past year. The fast is of great antiquity and is ofttimes referred to in Leviticus and Numbers. It is considered the culmination of the Jewish expiatory ceremonial and the ideal expression of Israel's religion.

"Following Yom Kippur comes the Feast of the Tabernacles, which falls on Thursday, September 26, which as the name implies, is the harvest feast and was said to be the greatest of the Hebrew feasts in Hebrew times. Many references appear to it in Exodus, Deuteronomy, Ezekiel, Leviticus and Numbers. It is termed the feast of Ingath ring and the Feast of the Booths, and lasts eight days, the eighth day having a ritual of its own with the name of Shmini Azereth. The day is to celebrate the gathering of the harvest and was originally of a Bachanalian character, even though few of the ceremonies practiced in the prophetic days are now observed.

"The year 1912 of the Christian calendar is the 5,673rd of the Jewish calendar with the difference that the first begins on January 1, while the second begins on September 12th.

"The principal fact about the year 5,673 is that it is a Leap Year, of 13 months, 384 days, 55 Sabbaths. In this year there is an extra month, that of Second Adair, a month of 28 days. According to the Jewish ritual, it is the 11th year of the 299th lunar cycle of 19 years, and the 19th year of the 203rd solar cycle of 28 days since the creation. The month of Second Adair is interspersed periodically in the year to maintain the relation of the Jewish months, which are strictly lunar, to the solar year.

"The names of the Jewish months are naturally in Hebrew and most of them may be found in the Bible. They begin with Tishri, which covers the second half of September and the first half of October, and run as follows: Tishri, September-October; Heshvan, or Marchesvan, October-November; Kisley, or Chisley, November-December; Tebeth, December-January; Shebat, January-February; First Adair, February-March; Second Adair, March-April; Nisan, April-May; Iyar, May-June; Sivan, June-July; Tamuz, July-August; Ab, August (one day in September this year); Ellul, September, (one day in October this year). This is the comparison for the present year, but as it is a Leap Year, with an extra month, the calculations would be somewhat different for an ordinary year.

"After the feast and fast days of the first month in the Jewish calendar, there are few days of extraordinary moment until the Festival of Purim, on March 23rd of next year, preceded by the Feast of Esther three weeks earlier. The day of days, however, is the Passover, which falls on the 15th day of Nissan, or April 22nd. Pentecost, or the Feast of Weeks, comes seven weeks after the Passover, on June 11th."

CHILD IS CARED FOR.

Placed in Good Care at the County Home—The Case Reported.

Editor Star:—In your issue of Thursday notice was given of a family in distress at 1105 Orange street. I had already received an anonymous card in regard to the family and had made a personal investigation. There seemed far more need of moral health than of physical food and in consultation with Mr. D. McEachern, chairman of the Board of County Commissioners, it was decided the wisest provision for the child—a little girl of seven—was a room at the County Home in care of one of the inmates, whose gentleness is well known. I write this in order that the public may not be stirred further over this case, which has been cared for for the present in what seems the wisest manner. THOS. P. NOE.

Bitten by a Dog

Mr. E. T. Williams, who lives at No. 18 North 10th street, complained to Mayor Smith and the police yesterday afternoon that he had been bitten by a dog belonging to Mr. Frank Meier while passing the latter's residence on Princess between Eighth and Ninth streets. The dog bit him on the right leg, making it necessary to receive medical attention which was given him in the city health department. The canine is said to be a very vicious one, but Mr. Williams did not think he was afflicted with rabies. Mr. Meier was notified that the dog must be kept muzzled or shut up or it will be killed.

CONTRACT FORMALLY SIGNED

Work of Installing Incinerator Will be Begun in About 30 Days—Will Be Completed in Five Months

In accordance with the action of Council in session Wednesday in awarding to the Decaire Incinerator Company, of Minneapolis, Minn., the contract for a 40-ton capacity incinerator for $34,000, Mayor Joseph D. Smith yesterday signed the necessary documents and they were sent by the evening mail to the Decaire people for the signatures of the officers of the company. Mayor Smith signed the papers before they left here and they were attested by Capt. Thos. D. Meares, city clerk and treasurer.

The signing of the papers was done in the presence of Dr. Chas. T. Nesbitt, city superintendent of health, to whom belongs in a a large measure the credit for this important step in the movement to make Wilmington one of the healthiest and most sanitry cities to be found anywhere. None was gladder than Dr. Nesbitt when the Mayor had affixed his signature and the same had been attested by the city clerk and treasurer. It just happened so, of course, but Dr. Nesbitt had the pleasure of handing the contract properly signed and executed so far as the city is concerned over to Mr. C. E. McGee, the very clever representative of the Decaire people. Mr. McGee sent the contract away last night to the home office.

The terms of the contract are that the city is to pay $34,000 for the plant, $10,000 cash and the balance is to be paid in annual installments of $6,000 each, taking therefore, four years to liquidate the debt. It is expected that 30 days from date work on the foundation for the incinerator will be begun and that not more than 120 working days will be required to complete the plant.

It has practically been decided to locate the plant on the old tobacco warehouse property recently purchased by the city. A small strip near the northwest corner of Dickenson and Fanning streets will be set aside for the incinerator.

The city and county will own the plant jointly, the city paying four fifths and the county one fifth of the cost of installation and maintenance. The plant is to be used for the destruction of garbage and carrion.

Members of Council concede that the credit for securing the plant should be given to the Department of Public Safety, which includes the health department. Dr. Chas. T. Nesbitt, city superintendent of health, and Councilman B. C. Moore, in charge of the Department of Public Safety, have been urging the purchase of such a plant for many months and have at last won their fight. They firmly believe that it is one of the best investments that the city could have made and that it is a long step toward making this an ideal city from the standpoint of health and sanitation.

THE WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY

Fall Meeting Will Be Held at Clarkton Next Week—New Church

The Wilmington Presbytery will hold its Fall meeting at Clarkton next week, beginning Tuesday and continuing for two days. The meetings will be held in the Clarkton Presbyterian church, which was recently built. The opening sermon will be preached by Rev. Dr. J. M. Wells, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of this city. Mr. A. F. Johnson, of Clinton, the moderator, will preside. At this session Rev. A. J. Howell, assistant pastor of the First church, and Rev. H. W. Koelling, assistant pastor of St. Andrew's, both of this city, will be ordained into the ministry, thus making the session of peculiar interest to the Presbyterians of this city. The meeting will likely be well attended by both ministers and lay delegates. This week's Bladen Journal says:

"Wilmington Presbytery meets within the bounds of our county next Tuesday. The Clarkton church will entertain it in its new brick building. It is the first brick church erected in the county. The people of the town look forward to the pleasure of entertaining such distinguished guests. Among the ministers and elders are representatives of the ripest scholarship, and the best legal and business talent. The moral, intellectual, and spiritual uplift for a community is guaranteed by the presence of so many men who contribute to the moral and spiritual life of this section of the State. We bid thes brethren welcome to the home of The Journal and assure them of a cordial reception awaiting them in the hospitable homes of Clarkton."

MARRIED LAST NIGHT.

Miss Mary Carney Becomes Bride of Mr. Perry Lyons.

Just preceding the regular service at the Church of the Ascension, corner Third and Marsteller streets, at 8 o'clock last night, a marriage ceremony was performed when Miss Mary Carney of Wilmington, became the bride of Mr. Perry Lyons, son of Mr. Charlie Lyons, of Switzland, Fla. In addition to members of the congregation there were present a large number of relatives and friends of the couple. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Thos. P. Noe, rector of the church. Both the bride and groom have many friends who will be interested in the announcement of their marriage. They expect to leave in a few days for Jacksonville, Fla., where they will live.

Meetings Close Tonight

A most interesting and helpful series of meetings have been in progress during the week at the Church of the Ascension, corner Third and Marsteller streets, conducted by the rector, Rev. Thos. P. Noe. The attendance has been large and the deepest interest has been shown. The service Sunday night was conducted by Rev. Claudius F. Smith, who has been supplying St. James' church in the absence of the rector. The series will close with the service tonight which begins at 8 o'clock.

MAY GIVE LONG TERM LEASE

City Attorney Gives Written Opinion Relative to Renting of Market House Spaces—Meeting of Council Today

City Attorney Herbert McClammy has submitted to the Mayor and members of the Council his written opinion regarding the legal right of the body to lease for a term of years the stalls at the Front street market house and it is practically the same as given orally by him at the regular meeting of Council Wednesday morning. In brief, he holds that the city has this right when the lessees agree to expend several thousand dollars in making the place more sanitary if the same is recommended by the city superintendent of health.

It is understood that Dr. Chas. T. Nesbitt, the city superintendent of health, will recommend that such action is for the immediate preservation of the public health, inasmuch as the market house as it now stands is regarded as unsanitary and much in need of improvements. City Council will hold a meeting this morning at 9:30 o'clock for the purpose of formally receiving the opinion and to take action on a suggestion contained therein that an ordinance be adopted giving the Mayor the right to lease the spaces at the market house for a term of years. The annual renting of the market house spaces takes place today at noon, therefore it is necessary to hold the special meeting this morning to determine whether or not the spaces, or any of them, will be leased for more than a year.

City Attorney McClammy in his opinion says that he is satisfied that the renting of the market house spaces for a term of years cannot be done except it be under an ordinance for the immediate preservation of the public health of the citizens, upon recommendation of the superintendent of public health of its urgency. He states that he sees "no reason why the Council should not pass an ordinance giving the Mayor authority to rent the stalls in the market house under a lease for a period of at least three years and inasmuch as the city superintendent of health has practically condemned the market, and those who are now engaged in the meat business desire to spend a large sum of money in putting in an up-to-date sanitary stall with all modern equipment which will cost anywhere from $3,000 to $5,000, I think the city can well afford to repeal its old ordinance and lease the stalls in the market house for a term of years."

He says that he advises this upon the recommendation of the superintendent of health, who has pointed out the necessity for immediate action.

A form of ordinance has been drafted and will be presented for adoption at the meeting this morning. The ordinance recites the fact that upon recommendation of the city superintendent of health that certain changes in the market house in the city be made at once and, whereas, on account of health and sanitary conditions it becomes necessary for the passage of this ordinance by reason of the urgent demands of the same.

The first section provides "that the Mayor of the City of Wilmington be and he is authorized and empowered to lease the stalls in the market house in the City of Wilmington for such annual rental as may be approved by the Council of the City of Wilmington."

The second section provides "that the Mayor be authorized and empowered to lease said stalls in the market house for a term of years not to exceed five years."

When the question was up at the regular meeting Wednesday members of Council seemed to be in favor of the proposition to lease the stalls for a term of years where the bid was attractive and it is very likely that the ordinance outlined will be adopted at the session today.

REV. W. G. HALL MAY RESIGN

Had Very Flattering Call to First Baptist Church at Rockingham

Rev. W. G. Hall, for the past year or more the popular and beloved pastor of Southside Baptist church, this city, has under consideration an urgent call to give up his work here and become pastor of the First Baptist church, of Rockingham, N. C. The field to which he has been called is one of great usefulness and gives a much wider sphere for his Christian activities, but his congregation here, and, indeed, the whole people of Wilmington, sincerely hope that he may decide to remain here. He has taken a prominent part in the general religious movement in the community and is popular wherever he is known. The strongest effort will be put forth to endeavor to show Mr. Hall that it will be in the line of his duty to remain in Wilmington. He expects to reach a decision in a week or ten days.

WILL RESTORE OLD RATES

Municipality, When It Gets Control of Sewerage System, Will Not Try to Take Advantage of Public—Conference.

When the city of Wilmington takes charge of the plant of the Wilmington Sewerage Company on October 1st, the old rates will be restored. This means that the people will get the service for just one-half what they have been forced to pay the sewerage company during the present quarter. Announcement of this will doubtless be received with much gratification by the citizens generally.

City Council in conference yesterday morning decided what the rate should be and also discussed many other matters in connection with the taking over of the sewerage plant. The rate charged by the sewerage company prior to the beginning of the present quarter will be exacted by the city. This rate is considered neither excessive nor too low. Instead of giving 10 per cent. discount for prompt payment, as the sewerage company has been doing, the city will make the rate just 10 per cent. lower and give nothing off, but will require the payment of all bills promptly. For example, where the sewerage company, under its former rate, charged a man $3 a quarter for sewerage service, less 10 per cent. for payment by the 10th of the first month of the quarter, the city will make the rate flat $2.70. It is the same thing so far as the cost to the patrons is concerned and means also the same amount of revenue to the city.

It is stated that it is the purpose of Council to ultimately furnish sewerage service free to the people of the city, but this will hardly be done for some years yet.

Of course, the sewerage system will be operated through the Department of Water and Sewerage, which is in charge of Councilman W. E. Perdew. It will be under the supervision of Mr. R. C. Cantwell, superintendent of the waterworks system. It is not likely that his clerical force will be increased any when the sewerage plant is taken over as the business of both the waterworks and sewerage will be handled through the same office.

The Wilmington Sewerage Company has derived a revenue of $7,000 to $7,500 a year from the sewerage plant. It is expected that the city will get more than this because hundreds of new connections will be made when the municipality takes charge. It is estimated that it will cost the city to operate the plant about $2,000 a year. The city will owe the sewerage company $100,000 on the plant and it will pay $5,000 a year on the debt. Interest of $5,000 a year will also have to be paid, but it is said that this could hardly be expected to come out of the operating account and that the idea is for the city to pay it from the general fund.

The city will have left upwards of $100,000 to the credit of the sewerage fund after the $30,000 cash has been paid on the sewerage plant bought from the Wilmington Sewerage Co., and it is presumed that soon after the transfer of the property Council will begin to plan for extending the system.

NO MODIFICATION HERE

"No Sunday Mail" Law Will Be Continued—No Instructions

With reference to the published report from the Norfolk Virginian Pilot, in these columns yesterday morning, that a still further modification of the "No Sunday Mail" law had been made, effective next Sunday, Postmaster Wallace, of the Wilmington office, stated yesterday that there was evidently some error in the Norfolk report, as he had received no further instructions with reference to the Sunday mail.

"I shall take the matter up with the Department if something definite is not decided in the very near future," said Mr. Wallace. "If the law is to be applied to Wilmington, it certainly should be applied all over the country," he said, supplementing this statement with the fact that the present method of handling the mail under the new law is highly unsatisfactory to him, as it is doubtless to the general public. Under the order of Postmaster General Hitchcock several months ago, Mr. Wallace said that a minimum of work was being done in the office on Sunday anyway and he could see no reason for any further abridgement of this order. As it is now, the mail has to be worked by the clerks anyway to prevent an unnecessary clogging on Monday morning, and he cannot see the sense in working the mail, laying it aside and then having to handle it all over again in putting it up Monday morning.

So far no two postmasters seem to put exactly the same construction on the law and with an idea of getting some uniformity of construction on the statue and some idea of how liberally the law may be construed, Mr. Wallace has signified his intention of appealing to the Department with the hope that there may be still further concessions to the public, such as seem to be granted in Richmond, Raleigh and Norfolk.

DR. SMITH IS SPEAKER.

New President Addresses Washington and Lee Students.

Lexington, Va., Sept. 19.—The first university assembly of the session at Washington and Lee was held Tuesday, and was rendered singularly interesting and enjoyable from the fact that the speaker was Dr. Henry Louis Smith, the new president of the university.

Dr. Smith's address was along general educational lines, and he also told of the advantages of an education at Washington and Lee, giving five reasons why Washington and Lee University stands out so prominently in the educational world: First, not being connected with any State or denomination; second, its location in the famous "Valley of Virginia"; third, the open homes of the citizens of Lexington; fourth, the democracy of the student body, and, fifth, its lofty traditions.

CAROLINA YACHT CLUB TO HOLD ANNUAL FROLIC.

The committee of arrangements is preparing to entertain a large number of club members on the evening of Friday, September 27th, the occasion of the regular annual frolic of Carolina Yacht Club, which promises this year to be one of the most enjoyable of the early Fall social activities. The feature of the evening will be the formal presentation of the handsome prizes to the winners in the series of yacht club races over the course during the past season. Dancing and other forms of amusement are being provided and from present indications nothing will be lacking to make a complete success of the event. Mr. James T. Munds is chairman of the committee which is working with a will.

The handsome silver loving cup known as the Jones-Walters Cup, will be awarded to Capt. Edwin A. Metts, who was the winner by largest number of points in the series of races for this handsome tropy. This is the third season for which this cup has been the incentive to the highest class of racing and the most closely contested races. The silver pitcher, offered as the club trophy, will be awarded to the winner, Col. John VanB. Metts, while the club pennant for the class races will also be awarded to Capt. Edwin A. Metts, who has the honor of bearing away two of the most coveted prizes.

Special cars will be arranged for with the Tidewater Power Co., for the frolic and several hundred prominent Wilmingtonians will no doubt take part in the pleasant affair.

SAUNDERS RENOMINATED

Congressman From Fifth Virginia Is Named for Third Time

Danville, Va., Sept. 19.—Edward Watts Saunders, representative in Congress for the Fifth Virginia district, was renominated today for the third time by the Democratic convention which assembled here at noon. The renomination was by acclamation and amid enthusiasm, there being no opposition whatever.

The counties of Halifax and Charlotte, which were transferred to this district from the Sixth district by the General Assembly last Spring, participated in the convention for the first time. Representative Saunders was invited to address the convention and spoke for about 30 minutes reviewing his service and the work of the 62nd Congress.

John W. Carter, of Henry county, was temporary and permanent chairman of the convention.

The feature of the platform adopted was an endorsement of the stand of the House of Representatives in favoring Federal aid for State roads.

PUBLIC HEALTH MEETING.

Many Matters of Moment Treated at Association Meeting.

Washington, Sept. 19.—So much damage does sewage do to waters in the vicinity of large cities that Lake Michigan is more or less polluted a distance of seven miles from shore, at times heavily so, was the assertion made today before the American Public Health Association by Dr. M. P. Ravena, in charge of the Wisconsin State hygiene laboratory.

In connection with the Lake Michigan Water Commission he has been studying the condition of the waters.

The intake pipes supplying drinking water for the towns along the lake shore, he declared, should be carried out from 12 to 15 miles from shore; and sewage disposal plants should be provided in the cities discharging sewage into the lake or rivers emptying into it.

Dr. W. F. Snow, secretary of the California Board of Health, told the association today that some change should be made in the statistical treatment of the deaths of non-residents. He pointed to the fact that California was the only State in the Union charged of recent years with a death from yellow fever. He said that the victim was a Mexican who had contracted the disease out of the country.

Wickliffe Rose, secretary of the Rockefeller Sanitary Commission, declared that the enormity of the task of ridding the South entirely of the hookworm disease was such that he did not think any of those present would live to see the completion of the work. A long campaign of persistent education, he said, was the only method of getting rid of the disease.

NOLAN WON'T TAKE IT.

Declines to Accept Appointment as Secretary to Panama Legation.

Washington, Sept. 19.—Harry E. Nolan, recently appointed secretary to the legation at Panama, who was recently arrested in New York with Marion MacVicker, a young Scotch girl, and later discharged by a court, today formally declined his appointment in the diplomatic service. His action relieves the State Department officials say, of some embarrassment.

Nolan, with his father, who came here from Chicago, conferred with Acting Secretary Wilson today and it was said there was a probability that President Taft might be asked to decide the question. Later, however, the problem was solved by Nolan declining the appointment and the following statement was issued:

"Mr. Nolan called at the Department of State today and explained that, although his conduct had been grossly misrepresented and distorted, as shown by the upshot of the proceedings in New York, nevertheless, owing to the disagreeable notoriety which had been given the matter, he felt for motives of delicacy that he would prefer not to ask for any appointment at this time."

TYPHOID IN WASHINGTON.

Polluted Oysters From Potomac Cause Trouble at Capital.

Washington, Sept. 19.—Six hundred cases of typhoid fever in Washington in the last six months have been traced by the Department of Agriculture to oysters obtained from sewage in the polluted beds in the Potomac river below the city. The sewage is traced to Alexandria and Harper's Ferry.

..Theatrical..

The Grand Theatre, since the inauguration of its Fall opening has been the subject of warm commendation from the amusement patrons of the city. With a full and complete line of the "moveys," a soloist of note and a complete orchestra, the Grand is certainly the premier popular-priced playhouse and patrons are recognizing this fact more than ever.

Mr. Chick will sing today "They've Won Every Nation's Battles But Their Own." This is said to be the greatest march song ever written and in it Mr. Chick will be heard to the very best advantage. He is certainly winning his way into the hearts of Wilmington people and in the song for today, he will have a fine opportunity for cementing the tie of popular friendship in this city.

The pictures will be headed this afternoon and tonight by a Selig of rare interest. "The Indelible Stain" is the subject and it is a tale of the old California Mission Days. Elsa, a little outcast, is one of the characters and another is Padre Argos, who ministers with wonderful power to the sick, the grieving and the sinful.

The other feature picture, besides a third that is always given, is "The Fortune in the Teacup." It is a strange and fascinating tale and has sufficient of the element of human interest to grip the attention of the spectator from start to finish.

At The Bijou

It was a big chunk of joy the Bijou furnished its devotees yesterday and it banished all dismalness from their beings and made them once more vow allegiance to this amusement palace, the joy and comfort spot of Wilmington. The Bijou's bill yesterday was one of the most novel and the brightest ever offered and there were crowds on hand to revel in its delights, too, in spite of the weather. In fact, the weather never keeps the people away from the Bijou. First, because the magnetic power of the theatre is too great and, second, because it is known that the Bijou is ever comfortable and bright. The price, of course, is also appreciated, coupled with the fact that the management never raises it, no matter the heavy extra expense. The figure is 5 cents, at any and all times, and it is going to remain so.

Today's bill is going to be a rouser; one that will teem with everything good and besides furnishing plenty of big entertainment, will provide some interesting educational ways. The latter shows the enterprise of the Bijou and its desire to give just what is wholesome and helpful. "The Right and Wrong Way" will be one of the star films, and it will show the right and wrong way of doing things in life, in getting off cars, and extinguishing fires, in crossing crowded streets, etc. One of the most spectacular photoplays of years will also be a star in "The Wreck of the Vega." The scenes are on the great lakes and coupled with the film is a bit of exciting, interesting marine history.

The dramatic film, "Betty and the Roses," is also a topliner. It is one of the most unique and one of the prettiest films ever created. It tells a beautiful story in beautiful manner. The action is strong and the scenery superb. Those who miss today's Bijou bill will go shy a rare and big treat.

Next at The Academy

George Cohan's cleverest musical play, "Forty-five Minutes From Broadway," with the famous comedian Bert Leigh, and Latimore & Leigh's splendid company and production will be seen at the Academy, matinee and night, next Wednesday. "Forty-five Minutes From Broadway," which has a real plot of interesting development and just enough catchy music to introduce some striking song hits, is wonderfully diversified in composition. It is one roar of laughs in the comedy scenes thrilling in its melodramatic moments, and heart-stirring in moments of real pathos. Hazele Burgess impresses the versatility of her art more strongly in her creation of the role, "Plain Mary," more than anything else she has undertaken. Bert Leigh, as ex-Prize Fighter "Kid Burns" with his wonderful slang phrases so expressively given and with his honest-hearted ways, has made an immense hit. The music principally containing two great songs by Miss Burgess, "Mary is a Grand Old Name" and "So Long Mary" and the title song, "Forty-five Minutes from Broadway," has gained the popular fancy.

The matinee will be another one of those popular-priced events. Reserved seats will be only 50 and 75 cents, while children will be admitted for 25 cents.

Field's Minstrels

The popularity of the Al. G. Field's Greater Minstrels with local theatregoers seems to grow with the passing years. Certainly they have never had a larger audience in Wilmington than greeted them at the Academy of Music last night. It is equally certain that on no former visit have the minstrels given more general satisfaction, which is saying much, when it is remembered that this clever aggregation of performers always please. It was an appreciative audience as round after round of applause attested. There were a number of new features introduced by the minstrels this year and these all went to strengthen the performance. Besides the local theatregoers a large number came from surrounding towns and early in the afternoon a message was received from Southport that 75 would be up on a special train for the show. Tickets downstairs were sold out early in the afternoon and there were left only a few scattering seats in the balcony and these did not remain on hand long.

"The Traveling Salesman"

"The Traveling Salesman," James Forbes' latest comedy, which will be presented at the Academy Friday night of next week, monopolizes the laugh market for the season, inasmuch as it is being designated by the press and public as the greatest comedy success of the past twenty years. The faithfulness with which Mr. Forbes has depicted certain incidents in the life of the drummer on the road, is worthy of commendation, sufficiently so as to warrant the endorsement of the United Commercial Travelers and the Travelers' Protective Association.

It will be acted here under the same auspices that helped make it a huge success in New York and Chicago, in which cities it ran for over a year.

—Walter Murray, colored, who was tried in the Recorder's court yesterday for disorderly conduct, was suspected of being the negro who was frightened away from the home of Mr. Sigfried Goodman one night recently and with having entered one or two residences, but was released late yesterday afternoon, according to the police, as nothing tangible could be secured to connect him with any of the recent housebreakings.

THIRTY DAYS ON ROAD

Negro Woman Had Trouble Wednesday Night Near Queen Theatre

Charged with assault with deadly weapon Corgie Nixon, a colored woman, was given hearing before Justice Harriss yesterday. It was alleged that the defendant struck Mary Davis, colored, on the head with a small door key. The trouble occurred Wednesday night directly across the street from the Queen Theatre at Eighth and Queen streets. The magistrate found the defendant guilty of simple assault and sentenced her to 30 days on the county farm. The Nixon woman was arrested Wednesday night by Deputy Sheriff Joe Bryan on a warrant from Justice Harriss. The manager of the theatre was tried in the Recorder's court a few days ago on a charge of maintaining a nuisance by allowing disorder at and near his theatre, found guilty and fined $250 and costs, from which he took an appeal to Superior Court. Justice Harriss was acting Recorder when the case was tried and he notified the defendant that the alleged disorderly conduct about the place must cease.

POSTMASTERS MEET

National League Wants Fourth Class On Civil Service List

Richmond, Va., Sept. 19.—The National League of Postmasters, which opened its convention here today, announced to its officers that a delegation will present a petition on Monday asking that all fourth class postmasters in the States south of the Ohio and west of the Mississippi rivers be placed on the civil service classified list.

It is stated that the petition will contain the signatures of 20,000 postmasters. President C. O. Barry, in his annual address, called attention to the need of civil service reforms, that idea being discussed by both speakers. The relation of the post-office inspector to the service and the public was the subject of an address by Inspector George Daniels, of St. Louis.

IN MEMORIAM.

On the morning of September the 15th the grim reaper, Death, took from our midst our beloved Comrade and Brother, Sir Knight Chas. T. Register, and there rests now a vacant chair to mark his memory. Brother Register was a young man of noble impulses and high ideals, and he possessed those traits of character which speak true manhood, and which brought cheer to the hearts of those with whom he met; he was faithful in the performance of the duties of life and to God who made him; he believed in those things which give strength of character and which gives the world the best in life; he was kind to the weak and true to the strong; his life was an example for others to emulate. We shed tears of sorrow over his grave, and cast golden thoughts around his memory.

And be it Resolved, That in the death of Brother Register Cape Fear Tent, No. 15, Knights of the Maccabees of the World, has lost one of its most ardent workers, and one of its best members, and we feel our great loss, but we humbly bow in submission to the will of him who rules and governs all things. We mourn the loss with his loved ones, and extend to them our heartfelt sympathy.

Resolved, further, That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of our Tent, and a copy be sent to the family of our deceased Brother, Sir Knight Chas. T. Register.

CHAFIN ON ROOSEVELT

"Anyone Who Knows His Record Will Not Be Fooled"

Wilmington, Del., Sept. 18.—In his speech here today, Eugene W. Chafin, Prohibition candidate for President, said he had heard reports that he "had gone over to Roosevelt."

"That's not true," he declared. "I am a real progressive, not a humbug trying to paddle into office on a ramshackle raft constructed of good planks, bad planks and beer kegs. Mr. Roosevelt, standging for some good things, is standing for some bad things. He is likewise standing for a whole lot of things the ordinary man does not suspect at all. Anyone who knows his record of trust protection, campaign scandals, high tariff and reactionary leadership will not be fooled by his sudden out-of-office conversion to sundry popular measures.

"His position on the whiskey question is plain. At Chicago, when he was 'professing his faith' and inviting questions, some one asked him how he stood on the liquor issue. He fired up at once and said, 'O, go to ——,' and then came a pause. Anyone who has ever watched a man try to start a balky mule knows what the finishing word would have been. But he thought better of it and lamely concluded, 'O, go to a primary school.'"

Mr. Chafin, accompanied by a committee from the Prohibition State Committee, made a tour of Delaware today.

John M. Gibbs, Clifford I. Millard, E. B. Wright, Ira Johnson and S. W. Clark.

Healthy Mothers

Women who bear children and remain healthy are those who prepare their systems in advance of baby's coming. Unless the mother aids nature in its pre-natal work the crisis finds her system unequal to the demands made upon it, and she is often left with weakened health or chronic ailments. No remedy is so truly a help to nature as Mother's Friend, and no expectant mother should fail to use it. It relieves the pain and discomfort caused by the strain on the ligaments, makes pliant and elastic those fibres and muscles which nature is expanding, prevents numbness of limbs, and soothes the inflammation of breast glands. The system being thus prepared by Mother's Friend dispels the fear that the crisis may not be safely met. Mother's Friend assures a speedy and complete recovery for the mother, and she is left a healthy woman to enjoy the rearing of her child. Mother's Friend is sold at drug stores. Write for our free book for expectant mothers which contains much valuable information, and many suggestions of a helpful nature.

COTTON PRICES UNCHANGED

An Early Advance in Yesterday's Market Was Lost as Result of Realizing—Close Was Steady 4 Points Off to 1 Up.

New York, Sept. 19.—An early advance in today's cotton market was lost as a result of realizing or scattered local selling, with the close steady, net 4 points lower to 1 point higher; generally 1 to 4 points lower, as compared with the previous night. The opening was steady at an advance of 4 to 8 points, in sympathy with higher Liverpool cables, but the market eased off to nearly the closing figures of yesterday, right after the call, under liquidation by yesterday's buyers, who were disappointed that the early weather news showed no indication of frost in the belt. The offerings were well absorbed, however, owing to the presence of another high area and low temperatures in the Pacific Northwest, and the market late in the forenoon sold up to a net advance of 9 to 10 points. Reports of a better trade demand combined with the absence of any Southern selling orders of consequence were factors on this advance. Realizing checked the upward movement around 11.67 for December and the market became nervous and unsettled during the afternoon, with some selling inspired by rumors that a Southern authority estimated the crop at 16,000,000 bales. These rumors were denied, but without helping the market to any extent and during the afternoon prices sold off to a net loss of from 6 to 7 points under renewal of local selling for a reaction. Southern offerings were a little heavier after midday, leading to rumors of an easier spot situation, but nothing definite developed in that connection, and the market closed 4 or 5 points up from the lowest on covering.

Receipts, 29,025 bales, against 29,855 last week and 39,779 last year. Today's receipts at Galveston, 15,102, against 12,506 last year; at New Orleans, 1,805, against 2,422 last year, and at Houston, 24,399, against 19,286 last year.

Spot, quiet. Middling uplands, 11.85; do. gulf, 12.10; sales, 581 bales.

DIDN'T GET MUCH

Robbers on Southern Train Secured Only $100

Chattanooga, Tenn., Sept. 17.—The two bandits who held up Southern passenger train No. 25 near Stevenson, Ala., yesterday morning got less than $100, according to best estimates available.

They took nothing but registered mail and did not search the four mail clerks in the car who had $400 in their pockets. Search for the robbers is now in charge of two postoffice inspectors, who have good descriptions of the men obtained from the mail clerks who watched them deliberately work.

The Swedish Olympic Society, organized immediately after the last games for the purpose of preparing a team for Berlin in 1916, is meeting with the utmost success. Money is pouring into the treasury. It is expected that there will soon be sufficient funds to meet all the preliminary expenses, and the collectors expect to gather $140,000 before the fund is closed.

STOCKS WENT UP AND DOWN

Market Opened With Upward Swing But Much of the Advance Was Soon Lost When Movement Became Sluggish.

New York, Sept. 19.—The stock market opened with another upward swing today, but much of the advance was lost by midday, when the movement became sluggish and irregular, except in a few specialties, among which American Can, common and preferred, were especially prominent for new high records. The preferred registered a maximum gain of 5 point with about half as much for the common. In connection with the rise in these issues, it was reported that some announcement dealing with deferred dividends on the preferred stock might soon be made.

As a whole, operations were even more professional than usual. Surface conditions indicated that the more substantial interests are still opposed to anything like a concerted or comprehensive rise until the political and financial situations emerge from their present uncertainty.

These same factors undoubtedly account for the detached attitude of investors, regardless of the brilliant crop outlook, expanding business, unabated demand for steel, iron and copper, and record-breaking domestic exports.

Demand for money was light, but rates for all dates held firm. Local banks reported a better inquiry for commercial paper, which was accepted as additional proof of general trade betterment. Outflow of money for the week has again assumed very large proportions, a fact to be reckoned with in connection with Saturday's bank statement.

Bonds were irregular, with a broader demand. Total sales, par value, aggregated $1,880,000. U. S. government bonds were unchanged on call.

Total sales, 360,300 shares, including American Can, 63,100; Chesapeake and Ohio, 400; Louisville and Nashville, 1,300; Norfolk and Western, 1,300; Reading, 41,000; Seaboard Air Line, preferred, 600; Southern Railway, 1,000; do. preferred, 400; Tennessee Copper, 200; United States Steel, 49,700; Virginia-Carolina Chemical, 400.

The Men Who Succeed

as heads of large enterprises are men of great energy. Success, today, demands health. To all is to fail. It's utter folly for a man to endure a weak, run-down, half-alive condition when Electric Bitters will put him right on his feet in short order. "Four bottles did me more real good than any other medicine I ever took," writes Chas. B. Allen, Sylvania, Ga. "After years of suffering with rheumatism, liver trouble, stomach disorders, and deranged kidneys, I am again, thanks to Electric Bitters, sound and well." Try them. Only 50 cents at R. R. THE NATION'S BUSINESS.

National Chamber of Commerce Officers and Directors to Meet.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 14.—A call has been issued for the officers and directors of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States to meet in Boston, September 20th. In the three days session, they will discuss the work of the Chamber and will decide on the date of the annual meeting. There is a general desire that this shall occur at a time of the year convenient for the majority of business men. There has been some discussion of the idea of having the annual meeting of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States preceded by general commercial rallies in each State of the Union. This would bring under the notice of all parts of the Nation the achievements of development in each State during the year 1912.

General Secretary Elliot H. Goodwin will take part September 19th at Jersey City in the meeting to complete the organization of the New Jersey State Chamber of Commerce. G. Grosvenor Dawe, chief of Editorial Division, will address the American Roads Congress in Atlantic City September 30th, on the relation of commercial organizations to road betterment. The American Association of Commercial Executives will use the headquarters of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States during their convention in Washington, September 23-25.

The second number of The Nation's Business, which is published by the Chamber of Commerce for the use of editorial writers and organizations and distributed without charge to these groups, will be issued September 23rd.

TO MAKE BANKING SAFER

Comptroller of the Currency Will Order More Thorough Examinations

Washington, Sept. 16.—Stirred by failures of National banks during the last few months, Lawrence O. Murray, Comptroller of the Currency, today announced that he would take vigorous steps to make banking safer.

Federal examiners will be instructed to make diligent inquiry beginning October 1st into the concentration of a bank in companies controlled by its officers and directors. The comptroller said he would insist that the books of such concerns be open to the examiner so that he may determine whether they are money-making ventures.

"If the officers and directors unduly concentrate the funds of a bank in their own venture," Mr. Murray declared in a statement, "the comptroller feels that in view of the fact that he is charged with the duty of protecting the depositors that he is entitled to know whether the concerns in which the funds of a bank are invested are paying or losing ventures."

Many National bank failures have resulted, it is declared, from the investment of bank funds in unsafe institutions in which the officers or directors were interested. In the past the only information obtained by the examiners as to the stability of these concerns has been the mere word of the officers that the loans were good and the company in proper standing. In empowering the examiners to inspect the books of such companies the comptroller declared that he was making a final administrative effort to make the examinations effective.

As long ago as 1876 women were among the speakers at both Republican and Democratic National conventions, and in 1900, Mr. Bryan's nomination was seconded by a woman delegate from Utah. The first woman's suffrage convention was held at Seneca Falls, N. Y., in 1848, but the movement was by no means new even then Abigail Adams and Mary Warren tried to secure recognition of women when the Federal Constitution was made, and in colonial days Margaret Brent, as executrix of Lord Baltimore, demanded a seat in the assembly of Maryland.

his subtlety but his stupidity. Some of them don't know the people are now on to them."

The Governor and his party left at 10:30 o'clock over the Michigan Central for Columbus, Ohio.

The nominee is scheduled to speak from his car at Toledo at 7:20 A. M.

Wilson Gets a Special

Niles, Mich., Sept. 19.—Governor Wilson got a new special car this morning after his wild ride last night, catching up with the fast train which left St. Paul ahead of him, but which he had to overtake to reach Chicago for his Eastern connection.

The car which he had been using was wooden, and rocked and creaked while racing South in a way that made the Governor's friends fear for his safety. The one to which he was transferred in Chicago is a steel car and also has the advantage of a shower bath which gave the first chance at a bath which Governor Wilson and his party had had since Sunday.

The Governor Meets Ty Cobb.

Detroit, Sept. 19.—One of Governor Woodrow Wilson's visitors after he reached his hotel here tonight was Tyrus Cobb, ball player extraordinary, with whom the Governor had expressed a desire to shake hands before leaving the city.

"I haven't seen you since we were together in Georgia, except that I have seen you play ball many times since then," said the Governor.

"Well, Governor, the next time I see you I hope it will be in the White House," replied Tyrus.

After this the nominee invited the ball player to have lunch with him. The latter bashfully declined.

"The last time he saw me in Georgia I was on the stage. I'm glad he didn't refer to that," said Cobb with a grin as he left the hotel.

FINANCE CAMPAIGN

Committee for North Carolina In Session Yesterday at Raleigh

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 19.—The joint meeting of the North Carolina committee on finance for the National Democratic campaign, the State Democratic press committee and the State Democratic advisory committee in session here today, looked thoroughly into the present organization of the State committee on National campaign finances and heard an address on improvements and general advancement of this work of pressing on the Democrats of the State the necessity of contributing to the National fund. They made it clear that the "dollar" contributions are immensely appreciated and badly needed but that there are great numbers of the leading Democrats of the State who should get out of the "dollar class." They want contributions from $1,000 down and the committee arranged to get into immediate and direct communication with numbers of the Democrats of the State who should make these larger contributions. Committeemen here for the meeting were Chairman A. W. McLean, Lumberton, Secretary-Treasurer Hugh McRae, Wilmington; Senator Lee S. Overman, Max Gardner, Shelby; Chase Brenizer, Charlotte; Col. W. H. Osborne, Greensboro; H. E. Litchford, Asheville.

REGISTRATION FOR ELECTION.

It Should Open October 3rd, Says Attorney General.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 19.—Attorney General T. W. Bickett has furnished to State Chairman Chas. A. Webb, of the Democratic State Executive Committee an opinion construing the State election law as to registration books, holding that under the law the registration books of each precinct throughout the State must be open for new registrations of voters October 3rd to October 23rd. Those who will have to register are voters who have changed residence and those voting for the first time.

Charters were issued today for the Farmers' Union Supply Co., of Camero, N. C., capital $5,000 authorized and $1,000 subscribed by A. D.Baneley and others, and the Consolidated Bridge & Machinery Co., of Burlington, capital $125,000 authorized and $4,125 subscribed by G. W. Tolliger, R. W. Curtis and J. R. Hoffman. A charter amendment changes the name of the J. C. Marsh Co., Marshville, to Davis & Ross Co.

THE FERRELL "HAZING."

Mountain Out of Mole Hill in Wake Forest Case.

Charlotte, N. C., Sept. 19.—The Chronicle this afternoon says:

"Prof. W. J. Ferrell, the father of the young man mentioned in the hazing story at Wake Forest, formerly resided in Wadesboro, where for 10 years he was at the head of Pee Dee Institute. The first information of the hazing reached Charlotte in a press dispatch from Raleigh and The Chronicle immediately telegraphed Dr. W. L. Poteat, president of Wake Forest College, asking for a statement. Dr. Poteat answered saying, 'Ferrell not injured in slightest. Has not been in hospital. Most pleasant opening of college in years.' Later The Chronicle telegraphed Prof. Ferrell for the particulars and in reply received the following message: 'The extent of Russell Ferrell's hazing, trotted around the campus in his night clothes. No injury done'."

Superior, Wis., Sept. 19.—A mob of 500 strikers and sympathizers tonight attacked the principal street car line in Superior, wrecking the cars and beating the crews and guards. There was furious fighting and more than 30 persons were injured, none, it is thought, fatally. The police fought desperately and rescued the car crews.

WHITMAN REPLIES TO MAYOR GAYNOR

witness in $2,500 bail. It developed today that Pollok had evaded a subpoena by leaving his home by way of a fire escape.

Pollok and the woman furnished bail in Justice Goff's court late today and were released. As they left the court room they were served by a representative of the District Attorney's office with a subpoena to appear as witnesses in the Becker trial beginning October 8th.

Acting District Attorney Moss took steps tonight to frustrate an alleged attempt to get another Rosenthal case witness out of his jurisdiction. Mr. Moss was informed that Max Margolies, who had made an affidavit concerning Lieut. Becker's raid on Rosenthal's gambling place, had been approached with the suggestion that there "would be something in it", if he got out of town. The acting prosecutor immediately sent detectives out, presumably to watch the prospective witness.

North Carolina Will Give Largest Vote To Wilson—Other Affairs

Washington, D. C., Sept. 19.—Congressman Robert N. Page, who as secretary of the Congressional campaign committee, is in charge of the headquarters here, said today that he believed Woodrow Wilson will poll the largest vote in North Carolina of any Democratic Presidential candidate since Cleveland was elected President. Mr. Page does not think Mr. Wilson will get as large a vote as Locke Craig, or even some of the State candidates, but that his vote will be the largest for a Presidential candidate since the time of Cleveland, he has no doubt.

Mr. Page is spending his time between the headquarters here and his district. He leaves tonight for Biscoe and will probably remain in his district for several weeks unless matters in connection with the campaign should arise which demand his attention here.

"The Republicans in North Carolina are badly split," said Mr. Page. "There are conditions in North Carolina that do not exist anywhere else in the country. One faction of the party under the leadership of Chairman Morehead and Duncan is supporting Mr. Taft; another faction known as the Bull Moose Progressive party is for Theodore Roosevelt, while a third faction headed by former Congressman Charlie Cowles is supporting Roosevelt electors but endorse the Republican platform at Chicago."

Congressman Page does not believe any of the Democratic Congressmen in the State are in danger of defeat in November. He pointed out the fact that in most cases where the Republicans have put up a candidate for Congress, they selected a Taft man. None of these men, Mr. Page says, have any chance of defeating the Democratic nominees.

Speaking of that section of the postoffice appropriation bill which closed postoffices of the first and second class on Sunday, Mr .Page said he had no doubt that the law would be repealed at the next session of Congress. He thinks there should be some law requiring postoffices to be closed a part of the day on Sunday, but he does not favor the present law which prohibits patrons of the office from receiving mail at any time on Sunday. He thinks it can be arranged so that offices can be kept open for a period sufficient for patrons of the postoffices to get their mail and then allow the clerks and others connected with the postoffices to enjoy a holiday.

Another law that Mr. Page believes will be repealed is the paragraph in the postoffice appropriation bill putting all employes under the civil service. As the law now stands should there be a change of administration, secretaries and other high officials under Cabinet members, which heretofore have ben made vacant with the going out of an administration, cannot be removed without cause. This provision was evidently intended to protect the Republicans now holding high offices, and will be repealed during the next session of Congress. The law runs only during the life time of the appropriation act, which expires July, next.

WILL SELL TIMBER RIGHTS.

That of Vanderbilt Estates is Placed on the Market.

Asheville, N. C., Sept. 19.—The timber rights of the vast estates of Geo. W. Vanderbilt, comprising in all 86,000 acres, were today placed on the market by agents representing the Biltmore millionaire.

It was recently announced that the Vanderbilt estate was being considered by the government as part of the Appalachian Forestry Reserve, but the Biltmore office today denied this.

him. Congress has created certain committees on appropriations who alone have power to review and revise requests of the department heads. Even in its own orgnaization, however, Congress has failed to make provision for considering expenditures and estimates and appropriations in relation to revenues.

"The authority is granted for the expenditure of a thousand million dollars each year without any thought as to where the money is coming from. This is on the theory that there will be no deficit—Congress has been doing what has been called 'surplus financing'. While the constitution makes Congress responsible for money raising as well as for appropriations, responsibility for borrowing has been shifted to the President by empowering him to procure loans to meet deficits in case a deficit may result.

"The great question of National expediency which is raised by the action of Congress above referred to is: 'Shall we or shall we not have a National budget? I do not question the constitutional right of Congress to prescribe the manner in which reports of expenditures and estimates shall be submitted to it by department heads. I do not question the practical wisdom of continuing to operate the government under 90 different statutes passed at 90 different times, which prescribe 200 different forms of preparing and submitting financial data to Congress and the public—data, which, when prepared have no element of uniformity or standard, and cannot be used to present to officers or to the people an accurate picture of activity pertaining to any one subject for the government as a whole.

"Although by such cursory review as could be given, I have succeeded each year in reducing initial estimates of millions of dollars, it is not just to make the President in any but a slight degree responsible for such estimates when required to be submitted to Congress in the manner as at present prescribed.

"I have gone thus at length in stating my position in order that you may understand the reasons for urging that you co-operate with the Commission of Economy and Efficiency in the preparation of such financial statements and summaries as will enable me to place before Congress and the country for the first time in our history a clearly stated and understandable business-like proposal which will enable Congress and the country to think in terms what it is the government is doing—what it is the administration proposes to do. With this accomplished the people may then judge for themselves whether the proposals sent to Congress are in the interest of public welfare and as such should be supported.

"The further recommendation which I have made is this, that in the preparation of data for the budget you and the head of every other department shall clearly indicate what changes in law are thought to be desirable as a means of increasing the economy and efficiency of the same. What is desired is open-handed dealings between Congress and the executive department and in this the public should be taken into confidence through the broadest publicity that may ensue.

"Under the constitution, the President is entrusted with the executive power and is responsible for the acts of heads of departments, and their subordinates as his agents, and he can use them to assist him in his constitutional duties, one of which is to recommend measures to Congress and to advise it as to the existing coiditions and their betterment.

"If Congress is permitted to assume exclusive jurisdiction over what the President may seek to learn about the business transacted by the departments—if Congress is to say that the President shall not find out what is the present manner of doing business; what results are being obtained; what it is that officers for which he is responsible propose to do and what amounts are being asked for future expenditure; if heads of departments are to be considered purely as the ministerial agents of Congress in the preparation and submission of estimates, then as far as the business of government is concerned, the President of the United States is shorn of most important executive power and duty."

FOR PRESIDENTIAL RECALL

Bull Moose Makes Declaration In Favor of It

Denver, Col., Sept. 19.—A declaration in favor of the recall of the President was made in the auditorium here tonight by Col. Roosevelt.

If he were elected President, he said, and found his views in opposition to those of the people, he would take the stump in defense of his policies and would quit office if he could not win the support of the electorate.

Col. Roosevelt's declaration was made in reply to a question by Wm. J. Bryan, who in a recent speech at Pueblo, Col., asked:

"How many terms may the President of the United States serve?"

"As far as I am concerned," Col. Roosevelt said. "I should be glad to have the recall for the President. It is not in the Progressive platform, and this is merely an expression of my personal feeling.

"My own experience was that I could do nothing as President except when the people were heartily with me."

Col. Roosevelt then took up other questions asked him by Mr. Bryan.

VANDERBILT CUP RACE

Preliminary Event Will be Staged in Milwaukee Today

Milwaukee, Wis., Sept. 19.—Hundreds of privately-owned automobiles speeding around the Wauwatesa automobile race course today, put the track in shape for the preliminary programme for the Vanderbilt cup race tomorrow. When the officials of the course were convinced that the efforts of some 500 road builders and steam roller workers were useless, so far as drying up the course after days of rain was concerned, they called upon the private automobile owners of Milwaukee and for hours hundreds of cars were run about the course.

Tonight Starter Fred Wagner declared the course reasonably safe.

ACCUSED OF WIFE MURDER

Message Causes Arrest of Negro Wanted In North Carolina

(Baltimore Sun, 19th).

As a result of overhearing a telephone message which led to the arrest of a negro wanted in North Carolina on the charge of murdering his wife, Patrolman Kneavel, of the Northeastern district, will probably receive a fourth of $250 offered for the arrest of the negro.

Needham Bell, the negro, who was arrested last Saturday, was identified by Deputy Sheriff Sanders, of Johnson county, North Carolina, yesterday, as the man under indictment. Governor Goldsborough granted the extradition papers and Bell was taken home to stand trial.

It is the practice of the Police Board to give half of the reward offered for the arrest of a suspect to the policeman who makes it. In this case it appears likely that the negro who informed the policeman of the facts in the case will get half of the reward. The other half will be divided between the patrolman and the pension fund. A negro was attempting to telephone friends in North Carolina telling of the presence of Bell in Baltimore, when Kneavel overheard what was said on this end of the line and demanded an explanation. The arrest followed a few hours later.
